ON THE COVER: Defensive end Vern Den Herder sheds a blocker as he rushes the passer. Den Herder, voted by his teammates as the Dolphins' Most Valuable Player in 1979, has missed only three starts in the last 125 games at left end, and he needs 10 more quarterback sacks to break the all-time Dolphin record of 74 held by Bill Stanfill.

Managing General Partner

Joseph Robbie, a man who not only sees opportunity but also seizes it, has orchestrated one of the most remarkable sagas of professional sport.

None of the vexations, indeed hardships, of building a championship team from scratch could subdue Robbie once he took his first determined step 15 years ago. His uncanny foresight and tenacious spirit have prevailed.

"Firmness of purpose," Lord Chesterfield wrote, "is one of the most necessary sinews of character, and one of the best instruments of success. Without it, genius wastes its efforts in a maze of inconsistencies."

Robbie epitomizes this firm pursuit.

Pro football has burgeoned by 16 teams since 1960, and Robbie's Miami Dolphins is the only club among those modern-day newcomers to win consecutive championships. The task of National Football League superiority was accomplished not in the 12 years it required Dallas, nor in the 17 years it took Oakland, but in just seven years for Miami.

And the Dolphins did more than earn the NFL crown. They bejeweled it with 17 perfect stones. An unprecedented record of 17-0 that 1972 season brought the Super Bowl title to Miami, and then the Dolphins repeated as champions with a two-year record of 32-2.

Robbie, 64, enters the 1980s with no less of an insatiable demand for excellence. As president and managing general partner, he administers a franchise that has compiled a winning percentage of .717 in the decade of a merged AFL-NFL.

Of all the plaudits accompanying the ascent of the Dolphins, none fit Robbie's persevering character more suitably than the Horatio Alger Award given him in 1979. It is an honor bestowed on giants of the free enterprise system as well as U.S. presidents in recognition of outstanding careers developed through "personal effort out of hardship."

"If I were asked to name the award that I would cherish most of any I know about," Robbie said in acceptance, "it would be this one. This to me represents struggle and achievement, and through my life, it has always been my opinion that the struggle itself is equally important and rewarding as the ultimate achievement."

The unavoidable setbacks for a 1966 American Football League expansion club never intimidated Robbie. The stadium was two-thirds empty in those first two years when the Dolphins averaged only 25,551 and 27,120 tickets sold.

A four-year ledger read 15 wins in 56 games, a paid average of 28,742 at the ticket counter for 28 games, and off the field, one member of the limited partnership had secretly negotiated a franchise move to Seattle. Robbie swiftly recruited five Miami investors to buy the substantial share held by the recalcitrant partner, and thus the Dolphins became rooted more deeply in Miami.

Robbie had survived the financial maelstrom, and he still searched for a winner. South Florida had indicated its readiness for pro football when an AFL-record crowd of 68,125 filled the Orange Bowl for a 1968 preseason game with Baltimore. The Dolphins had drafted Griese, Csonka and Morris and had traded for Buoniconti and Little. On-field leadership was the missing element.

Robbie found it. He summoned Don Shula to be head coach February 18, 1970. In the decade that followed, every NFL team except Dallas, Minnesota and Pittsburgh changed coaches but none of more than 100 moves topped Robbie's selection.

Immediately in 1970, the Dolphins were transformed from 3-10-1 underachievers to 10-4 playoff qualifiers.

Robbie's faith in once-apatetic South Florida was rewarded with fanatical support. There was an NFL-record 74,961 season tickets in 1973 on the way to 22 consecutive sellouts while the Dolphins made history with Super Bowl triumphs over Washington and Minnesota. In the 10 years since Robbie brought Shula to the helm, the Dolphins have averaged 66,800 tickets sold over 77 dates at the Orange Bowl (excluding preseason games).

Robbie, a former South Dakota legislator and Minneapolis lawyer, has campaigned vigorously for a new stadium which would be "a credit to South Florida and a source of comfort and convenience to our fans." Through his enlightened opposition to major renovation of the Orange Bowl has come a rethinking of stadium proposals by county governments.

"The Miami Dolphins will never negotiate again with City Hall for use or major renovation of the Orange Bowl. The subject is closed," Robbie has said for the record. "We not only will not play in the Orange Bowl in 1987, we want to know . . . whether or not the community leadership is willing to build a new stadium in South Florida for the enthusiastic fans of this area. The fans will settle for nothing less, neither will I."

In a poll of Dolphin season-ticket holders in 1979, 61 per cent of the fans rated the Orange Bowl "inadequate" and 82 per cent favored a new stadium. Most significantly, 69 per cent would support a bond issue and another 19 per cent said maybe.

The Dolphins, through Robbie's adroit management, have directed more than $1.5 million to charitable organizations in the community that supports them. Robbie also involves himself personally in many civic endeavors. He has worked actively on the Board of Trustees for both Jackson Memorial Hospital and the United Way, and he served as president of Catholic Charities for three years.

He also serves on the National Board of Directors of the American Health Foundation and the U.S.O. Other past services by Robbie include the Board of Governors of the Greater Miami Chamber of Commerce and the Boards of Directors for United Way, Boystown, Crippled Children's Society and the Heart Association.

His managerial ability was recognized by NFL colleagues when he served on the six-member Executive Committee of the NFL Management Council and he was chairman of the AFL Player Relations Committee.

DONALD F. SHULA

Head Coach

In profile, his face has a chiseled magnificence. It was carved through 17 years as a National Football League coach, and carved as deeply as his commitment to excellence.

The record is there for historians, but your eye interprets Don Shula. He stirs restlessly along the sideline. Exhorting all. Deliberating. Instructing. Always pacing. And when he stops — his arms locked across his chest, those eyes powerful as lasers, that anvil of a jaw — he stands as the unshakable commandant.

It is Shula's steel-clad determination, a fervor he instills in every player, that produces consistent winners for the Miami Dolphins.

He could become only the third coach in NFL history to win 200 games; he marches into the 1980s with a record of 185-70-5. His career winning percentage of .721 is the best among the NFL's all-time 10 winningest coaches, and the perfect 17-0 mark by the 1972 Dolphins remains a monument to Shula. Probably no team will surpass the incredible 32-2 combined record of 1972 and 1973 with two Super Bowl conquests.

With teams in Baltimore and Miami, Shula has built five unbeaten streaks of 10 or more games, and no other coach has done it more than twice. His 71.7 per cent winning in 10 seasons in Miami (112-44-1) parallels his 72.8 per cent success in seven years in Baltimore (73-26-4) from 1963 to 1969.

By winning the AFC East title in 1979, the Dolphins have either won or shared first place in the division eight times in the decade under Shula. His Dolphins have been almost invincible at the Orange Bowl with a 64-13 record (83 per cent) including an NFL-record 31-game winning streak at home from 1971 to 1974.

Shula, 50, attacks new challenges with the same fundamentals of organization, preparation and discipline. He drills for precision in every practice, and his methods eliminate errors — the Dolphins have been the least-penalized team in the NFL for four consecutive years.

"I don't believe in gimmicks," Shula says. "I like to work within the rules, and I like to do it with a lot of poise and a little class."

And behind the intense, steely visage is Shula's abiding respect for his athletes and a warmth that evades the TV cameras along the sidelines. Consider the reasons Shula named his family's pet collie Zonk:

"There's a certain similarity. The dog's nose is sort of crooked. He's wide-bodied and has a big belly. And he rams right into you instead of trying to run around you."

Shula's approach to football becomes indelibly etched on the character of most players, and it prompted 34-year-old tackle Mike Current to write a 1980 retirement note.

"I would like for you to know how much I appreciate the opportunity to have played for you and the Dolphins over the past three years," Current wrote. "I really felt that those years gave me more insight to actual achievement and the sacrifices required than the 10 years I played previously. Also I truly appreciate the patience and faith you demonstrated in me in the beginning and throughout."

Shula has made a mark on the game as an innovator of defensive complexities and situation substitutions, and he has gained reputé as a great motivator. Certainly, other coaches can develop brilliant strategy and deliver rousing speeches at halftime. But Shula surpasses the rest in his skill as a teacher.

Twice with the Dolphins, in 1970 and 1977, Shula has deployed five rookies in his starting defense and won 10 of 14 games each time. And for those exigencies brought on by injuries to his starting quarterback, Shula has solutions. Backup quarterbacks for the Dolphins have a 23-5 record under Shula.

He had been the youngest head coach, 33, in NFL history when the Colts picked him in 1963 after Shula's three years as defensive coordinator of the Detroit Lions. In the old NFL, the Colts reached the title game in 1964 and 1968 after 12-2 and 13-1 campaigns, and the 1967 Colts posted an 11-1-2 record. Those three powerhouse teams averaged scoring almost 30 points per game.

Shula's resourcefulness is best documented in 1965 when injuries sidelined Colts quarterbacks John Unitas and Gary Cuozzo, so that halfback Tom Matte wore the "playbook" on his wristband and directed a 20-17 upset at Los Angeles.

He transformed a 3-10-1 Dolphin team into a playoff qualifier his first season in Miami and laid the foundation for a perennial contender. In 1971, the Dolphins won their first of four consecutive AFC East titles, and on Christmas Day in Kansas City, pro football's longest game (82 minutes, 40 seconds) ended with Garo Yepremian's winning 37-yard field goal in the second overtime. A week later, the Dolphins stymied the Unitas-led Colts, 21-0, on the same Poly-Turf where Baltimore had won Super Bowl V the previous January.

Dethroning the Colts launched the Dolphins to three consecutive AFC championships — a feat unequalled in either conference since the 1970 merger. But a disappointing 24-3 loss to the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl VI filled Shula and his players with greater drive, and in 1972, the Dolphins attracted headlines as the "Greatest Team Ever."

Shula had claimed 38-year-old Earl Morrall from the waiver list in April 1972, recalling Morrall's leadership of the 1968 Colts. When quarterback Bob Griese suffered a broken ankle in the fifth game, Morrall took charge for 11 straight victories. The Dolphins rewrote the NFL rushing record (2,960 yards), and with a regular-season record of 105-30-5, Shula became the first NFL coach to win 100 games in his first decade.

Surprisingly, the unbeaten Dolphins were three-point underdogs to the Washington Redskins in Super Bowl VII. Shula elected to go with a healthy Griese, and the Dolphins dominated the Redskins, 14-7, for the coach's first NFL crown.

No less impressive were the 1973 Dolphins, losing only twice in 17 games. The Dolphins set modern NFL records of allowing only 1,290 yards passing and only five touchdown passes, and they overwhelmed three playoff opponents, 85-33, including a 24-7 rout of the Minnesota Vikings in Super Bowl VIII.

Shula and aides Bill Arnsparger and John Sandusky have worked together since 1963.

Only once have Shula's Dolphins failed to win 10 games in a season, and they have qualified for the playoffs seven times in the past decade.

The Dolphins' enviable consistency is attributable to Shula's daily admonitions to strive for perfection.

As veteran safety Tim Foley describes the Shula approach, "He does a splendid job of keeping in the front of every player's mind the objective to become a better player. He just does a very thorough job, each and every day, of reminding you, 'Today, you're going to get better. You need to be better today.'"

He strives for that winning attitude in preseason success which measures 71-20-3 (.771) including 32-4-1 at Baltimore and 39-16-2 at Miami.

Donald Francis Shula was born January 4, 1930 and raised in Painesville, Ohio. He was a running back at John Carroll University in Cleveland, and in 1950, he gained 125 yards when the Blue Streaks upset Syracuse, 21-15.

Shula was the lone rookie on Coach Paul Brown's defending NFL champion Cleveland Browns in 1951 until Shula's college teammate Carl Taseff joined the Browns at midseason. Both were involved in a 15-player trade with Baltimore in 1953, and Shula played four seasons with the Colts (1953-56) and one season in Washington (1957) at right cornerback. He had 21 career interceptions for 247 yards.

Shula entered the coaching ranks with an assistant's job at Virginia (1958) and Kentucky (1959), and he joined the NFL's Detroit Lions in 1960 under Coach George Wilson — a man he later replaced in Miami. The Lions posted a 26-13-1 record with Shula as the defensive coordinator.

Then in 1963 he succeeded Weeb Ewbank as head coach at Baltimore, and in the 17 seasons which have followed, Shula has reached the championship game five times with two victories.

Today he takes an active role in NFL leadership, serving the past ~~46~~ years on the select four-man NFL Competition Committee. Improved safety in pro football has become a major goal for this committee along with implementation of rules changes.

"I think for a while there was the teaching and coaching of intimidation," Shula admits. "I like to see a clean hit as much as the next guy, but I think you can go out and compete just for the desire of winning, more than for physically intimidating the other guy. The players have to realize that they're all in it together."

For all the energies he channels toward football, Shula remains a devoted family man. He and the former Dorothy Bartish, married July 19, 1958, have five children — two boys and three girls — David 21, Donna 19, Sharon 18, Annie 16 and Michael 15.

David Shula, the 1977 salutatorian at Hollywood Chaminade High, broke all pass receiving records at Dartmouth College. In two seasons, the Dartmouth co-captain has caught 81 passes for 1,064 yards and six touchdowns.

"He's never pressured me at all to do anything, whether it was baseball or soccer or football or whatever," David Shula says of his father. "It was always my own initiative. If I was interested in it, then my dad would always say, 'If you want to do it, that's great; but give it your all and don't come out a quitter. You can't always come out a winner, but you can always give it your best.'"

He was presented the prestigious Timmie Award from the Touchdown Club of Washington in 1974 for the "extraordinary achievement" by the Dolphins over a four-year period (54-11-1) through three Super Bowl appearances. His credits include Pro Football Executive of the Year in 1972 by the Long Island Athletic Club, Football Man of the Year in 1971 by both the Football News and the Minutemen Club of the Twin Cities, and Football Father of the Year in 1976 by Pop Warner Junior League Football.

Robbie was the national fund-raising chairman for the Dakota Dome, a $7.2-million arena at his alma mater, the University of South Dakota, which presented him an honorary Doctor of Laws degree in 1979.

He may be the only person ever elected student body president of two colleges — Northern State Teachers College in Aberdeen, S.D., and the University of South Dakota in Vermillion. He founded the South Dakota Student Federation consisting of the student governments of all of South Dakota's colleges and universities and he served as its president both years he was student body president at Northern and USD.

A gifted extemporaneous speaker, he won the National Discussion Debate championship in Chicago in 1940 and earned his law degree from South Dakota in 1946. His education was interrupted by Navy duty during World War II, and he received the Bronze Star for his part in five South Pacific invasions.

Robbie was born July 7, 1916 in Sisseton, S.D. He and his wife Elizabeth (married 12-28-42) have raised 11 children. Robbie first practiced law in Mitchell, S.D. (1946-51) when he served as Democratic State Chairman, state legislator and 1950 gubernatorial candidate. His family had grown to six children when he moved to Minneapolis in 1951 to become Regional Counsel for the Office of Price Stabilization, and later he directed a four-state area with 500 employees.

He was a charter member of the Twin Cities Metropolitan Planning Commission, and in what ranks alongside his Super Bowl achievements, he drafted the law which created the Minnesota Municipal Commission for which he was chairman from 1959 to 1965.

It was then in 1965, after 20 years as a lawyer, that Robbie happened into pro football. A client Robbie met on a Miami Beach vacation was interested in an AFL expansion franchise for Philadelphia. Robbie contacted AFL Commissioner Joe Foss, a former South Dakota classmate and colleague in the legislature.

Robbie and entertainer Danny Thomas, friends since 1959 while serving on the Board of Directors of St. Jude Children's Hospital in Memphis, filed a formal application and were awarded an AFL franchise for $7.5 million. Thomas divested himself of his large stake in the Dolphins in 1967, and by 1969, Robbie had overcome attempts of takeover by partners and had maneuvered into majority ownership.

He did it by accepting personal responsibility for the club's debts and obligations and without "oil wells or hotel chains or inherited money with which to support professional football in Miami," he said.

He has expanded sports in South Florida through his wife Elizabeth, owner of the successful Fort Lauderdale Strikers of the North American Soccer League, and he has drawn his sons Michael, 32, and Tim, 25, into administrative positions with an eye to the future.

Exec. Vice President and General Manager

J. Michael Robbie, a 32-year-old graduate of the University of South Dakota law school, is following the path blazed by his father in the administration of the Miami Dolphins.

He is entering his second full season as Executive Vice President and General Manager, a position to which he was named October 11, 1978.

The younger Robbie earned his J.D. and M.B.A. degrees from South Dakota in May 1978, and he was admitted to the South Dakota Bar. He was graduated in 1966 from De LaSalle High in Minneapolis, and he earned his B.S. in mechanical engineering from the University of Notre Dame in 1971.

Among his current tasks is the implementation of a computer system for all Dolphin operations. He formerly worked in the Dolphins' ticket office from September 1971 to July 1975, serving as Ticket Director the last two years.

"All of us get a day older every day, so we have to plan for the future of our family," Joseph Robbie says, "so I'm pleased that Michael has legal training and a business background and is able to fit himself into the management of the Dolphins and the handling of family affairs."

"Mike is going to take a leadership role in guiding the younger members of our family."

The younger Robbie has represented the Dolphins at NFL meetings.

Michael, the fourth-oldest of 11 Robbie children, was born Jan. 6, 1948 in Mitchell, S.D. He was raised in Minneapolis when the family moved there in 1951.

DOLPHINS HOLD NFL TICKET RECORDS

The Miami Dolphins possess all five National Football League records for paid attendance in a single season, established in 1973 as defending Super Bowl champions. These records include:

- Total tickets sold for 14-game schedule, home and away, with 1,025,400. The only other team to surpass a million tickets was Buffalo in 1974 with 1,003,062.
- Total tickets sold for a 7-game home schedule with 551,000 for the sellout season averaging 78,714 per game.
- Total tickets sold for a 7-game road schedule with 474,400 averaging 67,771 per game.
- Total tickets sold for a complete season (17 games) with 1,255,535 averaging 73,855 per game.
- Total season tickets sold with 74,961. Closest to that figure were the New York Giants (73,997) and Denver (73,096) in 1978.

BILL ARNSPARGER

Asst. Head Coach, Defense

17th Season, 9th with Dolphins

Born Dec. 16, 1926

Bill Arnsparger has achieved a record so consistently excellent as to be worthy of a Ph.D. in defensive football.

In his seven full seasons with the Dolphins (1970-73 and 1977-79), Arnsparger has built and rebuilt a defense which allowed the fewest points in the National Football League. Under Arnsparger's guidance, the Dolphins have yielded 200 fewer points than Pittsburgh and 360 fewer points than any other AFC team in those seven years. Miami has finished first or second in AFC scoring defense six times.

Arnsparger, 53, has molded a disciplined defense which five times in 1978 and four times in 1979 did not allow a touchdown as the Dolphins reached the playoffs. He was awarded the Dolphin game ball in Super Bowl VIII after the 1973 Dolphins permitted only 150 points and set modern NFL records of allowing just 1,290 passing yards and five TD passes; they sacked quarterbacks 45 times and put together 13 consecutive scoreless quarters.

His association with Coach Don Shula goes back to 1959 as aides at Kentucky, then 1964-69 at Baltimore and 1970-73 at Miami. Three times in those first 10 pro seasons, Arnsparger's defense led the NFL in scoring defense.

He was head coach of the New York Giants for 2½ seasons beginning in 1974 and his teams posted a 7-28 record before he rejoined the Dolphins at midseason 1976. He had spent 14 years in college coaching — Miami of Ohio (1950), Ohio State (1951-53), Kentucky (1954-61) and Tulane (1962-63) — before combining talents with Shula.

Arnsparger was a lineman in high school at Paris, Ky., under Blanton Collier, later head coach (1963-70) of the Cleveland Browns. Arnsparger spent two years as a Marine sergeant before returning to Miami of Ohio as an offensive tackle under Woody Hayes. In 1976 he was inducted into the Miami University Athletic Hall of Fame.

Currently he is chairman of the 20-member Governor's Sports Council in Florida. He and his wife Betty Jane (married 8-24-57) live in Miami Lakes with their son David (8-6-65) and daughter Mary Susan (2-29-68).

DAN HENNING

QBs, Receivers,
Passing Game

6th Season, 2nd with Dolphins

Born June 21, 1942

Dan Henning took charge of the passing game in 1979 when the Dolphins averaged a team-record 172.7 yards per game and hit the 3,000-yard mark for the first time

Henning's top two receivers, Nat Moore and Durliel Harris, set a Dolphin combined yardage record of 1,638 yards on 90 receptions and Dolphin running backs caught a record 101 passes.

Henning, 38, entering his 12th year of coaching and sixth in the NFL, also handles football's finest three-deep quarterbacking group with veterans Bob Griese and Don Strock and third-year pro Guy Benjamin.

He has worked with the New York Jets' receivers for three years (1976-78) and coached quarterbacks and receivers for the 1972 Houston Oilers under Bill Peterson. Henning's coaching career began at Florida State (1968-70) as offensive coordinator under Peterson. He made separate moves to Virginia Tech (1971 and 1973) around his season with the Oilers, and he returned to Florida State in 1974. Before joining the Jets under Lou Holtz in 1976, he served as resident manager of security for John C. Mandel Company at the World Trade Center in New York in 1975.

Henning, who coached Strock in his junior season (1971) at Virginia Tech, also tutored college QBs Gary Huff, Bill Cappleman and Tommy Warren at Florida State.

Henning was a quarterback at William & Mary College (1960-63) and ranked 14th in the nation in passing as a senior. He was on the 1966 roster of the San Diego Chargers and he played with the Norfolk Neptunes of the Continental League.

Henning and his wife, Sandra have five children — daughters Mary K. (10-31-61) Patty (11-13-62) and Terry (7-6-68), and sons Danny (6-22-65) and Mike (1-30-73).

TOM KEANE

Defensive Backs, Punting

17th Season, 15th with Dolphins

Born Sept. 7, 1926

Tom Keane, whose guidance of the Dolphin secondary now stretches from the team's 1966 inception to the 1980s, has a rare bonus for his 15th season in Miami: a first-round draftee.

Keane's newest pupil in 1980, cornerback Don McNeal, is the only defensive back ever drafted by the Dolphins in the first round. In fact, only once (cornerback Jeris White, 1974) have the Dolphins used a second-round pick for Keane's patrol.

Keane, 54, the only Dolphin coach to earn All-Pro honors as a player, is one of only three current NFL assistants who have coached with the same club as long as 15 years — Jim Myers (1962-80) and Ernie Stautner (1966-80) of Dallas are the others. The Dolphins have averaged 23 interceptions per year topped by an NFL-leading 32 thefts in 1978.

In Keane's first year, the Dolphins stole 31 passes and ranked second in the American Football League. In 1973 the Super Bowl champions allowed only five touchdown passes.

Keane, a former All-Pro safety for the Baltimore Colts in 1953, holds the Colt record with 11 interceptions that season. He had swiped 10 passes in 1952. He also averaged 42.8 yards punting and he held the ball for Bert Rechichar's 56-yard field goal that stood as an NFL record for 17 years.

He was a freshman quarterback and tailback for unbeaten Ohio State in 1944, and after a 20-month stint as a seaman in the South Pacific, Keane played at West Virginia. He skipped his senior year to be drafted by Los Angeles (1948-51), then was traded to the short-lived Dallas Texans (1952) and went to Baltimore (1953-54) in the franchise move.

Keane played with the Chicago Cardinals (1955) and his career ended with a knee injury suffered while tackling Tank Younger in a 1956 preseason game. He coached with the Cardinals (1957) and the Calgary Stampeders (1960) of the Canadian Football League.

In 1961 he became head coach of the Wheeling Ironmen of the United Football League, and after winning two championships, he moved to Pittsburgh (1965) as an assistant.

He and his wife Mary (married 7-5-52) live in Miami and have two daughters, Candi and Mary, and two sons, Tom and Tim.

JOHN SANDUSKY

Offensive Line, Running Game

22nd Season, 5th with Dolphins

Born Dec. 28, 1925

John Sandusky has poured his wealth of coaching expertise into a top-priority assignment of restructuring the Dolphin offensive line in 1980.

His teaching patience and thoroughness are not diminished in 28 years in the NFL including 21 years of coaching — five more than any other Miami assistant.

With vacancies at both tackle positions, Sandusky has developed young blocking giants Eric Laakso, Jon Glesler and Cleveland Green. Altogether, as many as eight players acquired since 1978 (including tight ends) could figure in the Dolphins' 1980 blocking wall. Miami topped the NFL in rushing in the 1970s, and Sandusky directed the line charge for the last half of the decade.

Sandusky, 54, has the unique distinction of having served in four different capacities in the old College All-Star Game in Chicago. He played with the All-Stars (1950) and coached them (offensive line, 1958); he played with the NFL champions (Cleveland, 1951 and 1955) and coached them (Baltimore offensive line, 1969, and defensive line, 1971).

He was offensive line coach under Don Shula for seven years (1963-69) with Baltimore. In fact, Shula tried to bring Sandusky to Miami in 1970 but the Colts' coaching staff was restricted. Sandusky stayed with the Colts to coach the defensive line (1970-72) with a Super Bowl V victory under Don McCafferty.

Sandusky's first NFL assignment had been the Colts' defensive line (1959-62) under Weeb Ewbank, so he has spent seven years on defense and 14 years on offense.

When McCafferty was fired after a 1-4 start in 1972, Sandusky was elevated to head coach. He posted a 4-5 record including two losses to the unbeaten Dolphins. Sandusky next spent three years (1973-75) with the Philadelphia Eagles' offensive line.

That was a homecoming for the former All-American tackle from Villanova. He went both ways at tackle for Cleveland (1950-55) when the Browns played in six consecutive NFL championship games, winning three titles, and spent one year with Green Bay (1956). He began his coaching career as a Villanova assistant (1957-58).

He and his wife Ruth (married 3-31-51) live in Cooper City with three sons and a daughter — John (1-4-52), James (6-21-53), Ruth (10-5-55) and Gerry (9-5-61). They have two granddaughters. A son Joey, a 19-year-old sophomore at Tulsa University, died of complications from pneumonia in September 1978.

MIKE SCARRY

Defensive Line, Run Defense

14th Season, 11th with Dolphins

Born Feb. 1, 1920

Mike Scarry has constructed a formidable run defense which put a stranglehold on opposing ballcarriers in 1979 to rank second in the NFL. Miami permitted only 106.4 yards per game on the ground compared to the league-leading 105.8-yard figure for Denver, and nine Dolphin foes failed to gain 100 yards rushing.

Scarry, 60, has molded Miami's defensive line for the last 10 years in a remarkable 31-year coaching career spanning five decades. While the Dolphins have sacked quarterbacks 77 times in the last two years, they have allowed either none or one touchdown in 18 of 32 regular-season games.

The Dolphins led the NFL with 14 shutouts during the 1970s.

Scarry was elected to the NAIA Hall of Fame in 1964 in recognition of his playing days as a center and linebacker at Waynesburg (Pa.) College. He played in the first game ever televised, Waynesburg vs. Fordham in New York, 1939. After two years in the Army, "Moe" was center for the Cleveland Rams (1944-45) in the old All-American Conference.

He began an 18-year college coaching career at Western Reserve (1948-49) and moved to Santa Clara (1950-52), Loras (1953), Washington State (1954-55) and Cincinnati (1956-62) before becoming head coach at Waynesburg (1963-65). His Yellow Jackets posted a record of 17-8-1 including two West Penn Conference titles, and he recruited and developed the Waynesburg squad which went unbeaten and won the NAIA championship in 1966.

In 1969 he was named to the Waynesburg College Hall of Fame for both football and basketball.

Scarry moved into the pro ranks with the Washington Redskins (1966-68) under Otto Graham and he spent the 1969 season as a scout for San Francisco.

He and his wife Elizabeth (married 1-27-43) live in Miami and have eight children, five boys and three girls — Sally Beth, Mike, Patricia, Tom, Maggie, John, Jim and Dennis — and one grandson.

CARL TASEFF

Offensive Backs,
Special Teams

14th Season, 11th with Dolphins

Born Sept. 28, 1928

Carl Taseff, whose Dolphin running backs led the NFL in rushing in the 1970s, has developed a versatile offensive backfield in helping the Dolphins reach the playoffs in 1978 and 1979.

Taseff's runners have become more involved in the passing game, piling up 87 and 101 receptions in the past two seasons whereas the backfield averaged 53 catches over the previous eight years. Taseff has coached nine different running backs who have gained more than 500 yards in a season, and his guidance of 1979 draftees Tony Nathan and Steve Howell will be important in sustaining a balanced attack.

Taseff, 52, scouted Dolphin opponents for three years (1970-72) in addition to his coaching duties. Prior to joining Coach Don Shula's staff he worked for the CEPO scouting combine in 1968 and 1969.

He had played nine years (1953-61) as left cornerback for the Baltimore Colts, and Taseff set Colts records with a 90-yard punt return for a touchdown Oct. 14, 1956 against Green Bay (four returns for 148 yards). He holds an NFL record with a 99-yard return of a Walt Michaels field-goal attempt Dec. 12, 1959 against Los Angeles. Still on the books are his Baltimore career records of 112 punt returns for 826 yards, and he never fumbled a punt.

Taseff starred as a running back at John Carroll University in his native Cleveland and he scored 22 touchdowns in 1950. He and Don Shula played in the same backfield for Coach Herb Elsie, and they were roommates with the Cleveland Browns (1951-52) and Colts (1953-56).

He concluded his pro career in 1962 with Buffalo of the American Football League, and after a year in the Insurance field, he became a defensive coach with the AFL Boston Patriots (1964) and the NFL Detroit Lions (1965-66).

He and his wife Lucille (married 11-18-78) live in Pembroke Pines. Taseff has two daughters, Cynthia Sue 24 and Susan 20, by a previous marriage.

BILL DAVIS

Dir. of Pro Personnel, Administrative Assistant

5th Season, 2nd with Dolphins

Born July 21, 1938

Bill Davis, a skillful administrator and coach, has a well-trained eye for football analysis in his multi-faceted role as Director of Pro Personnel. He joined the Dolphins in February 1979 with 15 years of college and pro coaching experience.

As administrative assistant to Coach Don Shula, Davis handles the negotiation of all player contracts, scouting reports on Dolphin opponents and analysis of NFL talent in waiver and trade procedures.

Davis, 42, who succeeded George Young, had spent three seasons (1976-78) assisting Coach Dick Vermeil in rebuilding the Philadelphia Eagles. He began as linebacker coach in 1976 and was promoted to Vermeil's top aide in 1977 while also coaching the tight ends and special teams.

His nine-year college coaching background included three seasons (1973-75) as offensive backfield coach at Michigan State and five seasons (1968-72) as head coach at Adrian College in Michigan. Davis' teams had three consecutive co-championships in the Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Association for the school's first winning season since 1949 and first MIAA title since 1911.

Davis, a Little All-American quarterback in 1960 at Mount Union College in Alliance, Ohio, put together an 18-8-1 record in three years at Austintown-Fitch High in Youngstown, Ohio. He was an assistant coach at Westminster (Pa.) College in 1967 where he earned his master's in education.

He and his wife Joanne (married 6-8-63) have three children — Diane (4-21-64), Billy (11-5-65) and Bret (1-4-68).

CHUCK CONNOR

Director of Player Personnel

3rd Season with Dolphins

Born July 7, 1937

Chuck Connor has developed a reputation as a shrewd judge of talent while supervising three Dolphin drafts as Director of Player Personnel since 1978. Seventeen players from the 1978 and 1979 drafts made the 45-man roster last season.

Even with the youth movement, the Dolphins qualified for the playoffs in 1978 and 1979, and for the first month of the 1979 season, there were 11 rookie draftees on the Miami roster — an all-time Dolphin record.

Of the 30 players drafted in 1978-79 by Connor, 24 were on 1980 NFL preseason rosters (17 in Miami).

Connor, 43, succeeded Bobby Beathard in February 1978 after serving as the Southeast regional scout for the BLESTO combine, which provides college player evaluations for nine NFL teams including the Dolphins.

Connor had worked three seasons (1975-77) for BLESTO and was promoted to one of their four regional scout positions in 1977.

He was a two-way end at the University of Cincinnati (1955-59) before he began a 15-year coaching career at Montour High near Pittsburgh. Connor was head coach for eight of those 15 years, and his 1967 team was undefeated. He taught at Montour in 1974 while also coaching the defensive secondary at Carnegie-Mellon University.

Connor had done player evaluations from films for the Pittsburgh Steelers while at Montour, and in 1975, he moved his family from McKees Rock, Pa., to Stone Mountain, Ga., near Atlanta to work for BLESTO.

He and his wife Dorothy (married 6-27-59) have four children — Chuck (4-23-60), Mike (1-16-65), Karen (6-20-66) and Scott (7-29-76).

STEVE CROSBY

Asst. Dir. of Player Personnel and Asst. Coach, Special Teams

4th Season with Dolphins

Born July 3, 1950

Steve Crosby did an exceptional job supervising the Dolphins' special teams in 1979 when he added coaching responsibilities to his valuable work in college scouting.

With Crosby's direction, the Dolphins led the NFL in punt coverage (5.2-yard return average), ranked fourth in kickoff returns (22.5-yard average) and second in punt returns (9.9-yard average).

Crosby, whose career as a New York Giants running back was shortened by injuries, has been scouting for the Dolphins since 1977 as the top assistant to Chuck Connor.

Crosby, 30, was a 17th-round draft choice when the Giants picked him in 1974. He appeared in 15 games in three injury-plagued seasons (1974-76) under Bill Arnsparger, and as a rookie, he gained 55 yards on 14 carries and quick-kicked once for 60 yards.

He had gained 1,891 yards in two seasons at Fort Hays College in his native Kansas. Crosby played eight-man football in his hometown Pawnee Rock.

He and his wife Ellen (married 6-27-69) and their son Bradley (10-19-70) live in Plantation, Fl.

BOB LUNDY

Trainer

14th Season with Dolphins

Born March 28, 1936

Bob Lundy, the original trainer of the Dolphins, has treated injured players for 13 seasons with his assortment of bandages and braces. He also organized a successful offseason conditioning program in 1980 which strengthened a dozen of the Dolphins' younger players.

Lundy's skill in helping players overcome bumps and bruises was apparent in 1979 when only three Dolphins were placed on injured reserve during the 16-game season.

Lundy, 44, was honored for his treating the wounded when Dolphins presented him with a game ball after clinching a fourth consecutive AFC East championship in 1974. It may be the only time an NFL trainer has been honored that way.

He came to Miami with the formation of the franchise and has worked every season except 1973 when he sold real estate. He graduated from Boston University in 1958 and was the assistant trainer at Indiana University while in graduate school. He became the head trainer at Detroit University (1960-63) while also serving as assistant trainer of the NFL's Detroit Lions, and in 1964, he became a full time assistant with the Lions.

He and his wife Alice (married 6-2-62) live in Miami with their three sons Bobby (3-30-63), Billy (6-30-66) and David (1-30-70).

JUNIOR WADE

Assistant Trainer

6th Season with Dolphins

Born Feb. 2, 1947

Junior Wade provides more than medical treatment in his role as assistant trainer of the Dolphins. He boosts the morale of injured players by going through the same regimen of running and weightlifting involved in rehabilitation, and this relieves the monotony of conditioning work.

Wade, 33, came to the Dolphins in 1975 after coaching Davidson College to its best baseball record (21-15) in history. Wade's team owned a victory over 1975 College World Series runnerup South Carolina.

He had worked in the Dolphins' preseason camps of 1973 and 1974 while he served as assistant trainer at Davidson. He was promoted to head baseball coach in 1975.

Wade was a three-year baseball letterman at South Carolina State. After earning a master's degree in education, he became trainer and guidance counselor at Fayetteville State in North Carolina.

He and his wife Constance (married 12-30-70) live in Hialeah with their son Aaron (2-25-72).

DAN DOWE

Equipment Manager

15th Season with Dolphins

Born Sept. 16, 1924

Dan Dowe has been fitting uniforms, customizing helmets and packing trunks of equipment for the Dolphins since the team's inception in 1966. He started as the assistant equipment manager and was promoted to equipment manager in 1969.

His locker-room pranks are legend among Dolphin veterans and a rude awakening among rookies. But it is beloved mischief, and fans and players turned out for a roast of Dowe during the 1978 season with Larry Csonka flying to Fort Lauderdale from New York to pay tribute.

Dowe, 56, is a native of Brighton, Mass. He served 4½ years aboard the destroyer USS Forest in World War II, and the ship was hit by a kamikaze plane. As a civilian he worked in industrial electronics in Boston and then as a police officer in Bal Harbour, a Miami Beach suburb.

He and his wife Virginia (married 6-8-57) live in Hollywood Hills with their son Darin (9-14-69).

MILT DAVIS

College Area Scout

3rd Season with Dolphins

Born May 31, 1929

Milt Davis, an educator as well as a talent scout, has been eyeing college athletes in a 14-state West region since 1967. He scouted for the Baltimore Colts from 1967 to 1976 and in 1977 for Los Angeles. He joined the Dolphins in 1978.

Davis, who has received his doctorate in administrative education from UCLA, is a counselor and biology professor at Los Angeles City College. He earned an M.A. in zoology from UCLA and is an avid bird-watcher.

Davis played four seasons (1957-60) with the Colts and twice tied for the NFL lead in interceptions, including 10 as a rookie. The Colts defeated the New York Giants twice in title games (1958 and 1959) with Davis at right cornerback, and he had 27 career interceptions.

He and his wife Yvonne live in Los Angeles with daughter Allison (2-19-59) and twins Brian and Hilary (5-21-62).

ELBERT DUBENION

College Area Scout

2nd Season with Dolphins

Born Feb. 16, 1935

Elbert Dubenion, an American Football League original with the Buffalo Bills in 1960, joined the Dolphins' scouting staff in June 1979. His basic responsibility has been the northern tier of states including the Big Ten and the Big Eight.

Dubenion, nicknamed "Golden Wheels" as a swift flanker in a nine-year career with Buffalo, retired during the 1968 season and devoted the next 10 years to scouting for the Bills.

He possesses Buffalo career receiving records with 296 receptions, 5,304 yards and 35 touchdowns. He also set marks with receptions in 42 consecutive games and TDs in five straight games. In 1964 he grabbed 42 passes for 1,139 yards and 10 touchdowns with quarterback Jack Kemp, and the Bills captured the AFL title.

He was a star halfback at Bluffton College in Ohio, scoring 53 career touchdowns.

He and his wife Marilyn (married 6-8-59) live in Westerville, Ohio, near Columbus, with their four daughters — Debbie (3-1-61), Carol (1-8-63), Susan (10-8-65) and Lisa (2-16-67).

New York Jets QB Richard Todd on rivalry with fellow alum Bob Baumhower:

During a timeout once, I looked over at him and said something about his nose. My nose is probably bigger than his nose, but I said, 'Hey, Big Nose.' And our center, Joe Fields, turned around and said to me, 'Shu' up, I'm having enough trouble with that guy. Leave him alone. Don't get him mad.' I told Joe, 'Aw, Baumhower doesn't get mad.'

'80 Prospects

By BOB KEARNEY
Public Relations Director

Only a few years ago, most of the Miami Dolphins could wear a Super Bowl ring on both hands. Now, the Super Bowl jeweler makes his living in Pittsburgh.

The Dolphins have won or shared first place in the AFC East eight times in the last 10 years and are determined to broaden their domain in 1980. It is unacceptable to Coach Don Shula to field arguably one of the five best teams in the National Football League.

"We have to rebuild the offensive line, that's our No. 1 objective," Shula says. "Defensively, we've turned it around with only two starters remaining from the Super Bowl years. Our defense, especially early in 1979, showed promise of being a championship defense.

"The big disappointment," Shula says, "was the manner in which we lost the playoff game (34-14) at Pittsburgh. In a game that meant so much, we played so poorly.

"Otherwise I felt that our football team was coming along and was ready to compete for the Super Bowl."

In capturing their first outright AFC East crown since 1974, the Dolphins displayed offensive power by scoring 24 or more points in each of the last five games. The New Names Defense, which has ranked second or third in AFC scoring defense for three consecutive years, led the NFL in allowing the fewest touchdowns (26).

Shula, 50, has molded a 17-year record of 185-70-5 and his teams have had five unbeaten streaks of 10 or more games. Shula's career winning percentage of .721 is best among the NFL's 10 winningest coaches of all-time, better than Halas (.674), Grant (.651), Lambeau (.626) and Landry (.617).

Shula's 112-44-1 record in 10 seasons gave the Dolphins the AFC's best record of the 1970s.

Analyzing the Dolphins by positions:

QUARTERBACKS — In a year when Bob Griese could become the 14th member of the NFL's elite 25,000-yard passing club, he will battle for a starting position. The 35-year-old tactical master will be challenged by strong-armed Don Strock, who started twice in 1979 when Griese was healthy.

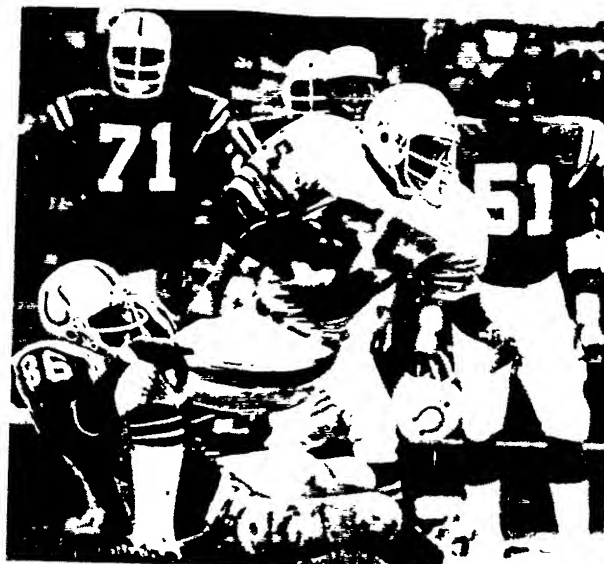

"Quarterback should be wide-open going into training camp," Shula says. "This is the first time Griese is coming off a sub-par year by his standards, and Strock deserves a chance to compete for the job."

Griese shook a slump in 1979 by guiding three straight victories that clinched the AFC East title, and in that spurt, he completed 34 of 49 passes (69.4 percent) for 458 yards, five touchdowns and only one interception. He has 99 career victories including four wins coming off the bench. Seven of his 39 wins have come in the playoffs.

Strock, who will be 30 in late November, never failed to move the offense in six quarterbacking stints in 1979. Top productions were a 20-point fourth quarter against Minnesota and a 28-point second half against Chicago in early-season triumphs. In fact, Strock played the equivalent of 3½ games and produced 109 points — 31.1 points per game.

No. 3 quarterback Guy Benjamin, a consensus All-America at Stanford in 1977, enters his third season. Eighth-round draftee Dave Woodley of Louisiana State was a bright spot in Dolphin rookie camp.

RUNNING BACKS — Linked to the restructuring of the offensive line is the revival of the Dolphin running game, which slipped to a 1970s low of 132.7 yards per game in 1979.

But the Dolphins are stocked with proven backfield performers with the pass-catching skills that lend versatility to the offense. Halfback Delvin Williams can vault into the Top 20 all-time rushers if he returns to his 1,000-yard form of 1978, as Shula anticipates. Williams gained 703 yards last season and missed two games with cracked ribs. Backup Gary Davis had 34 pass receptions on top of his 383 yards rushing.

Fullback Larry Csonka, the one-man demolition crew, led the Dolphins with 837 yards and 13 touchdowns in his comeback. He stayed No. 3 on the all-time list with 8,081 yards, and he could surpass Joe Perry (8,378) and Jim Taylor (8,597) with an encore. The 33-year-old Csonka owns Dolphin records of 6,737 yards rushing and 57 touchdowns, and this will be his ninth season in Miami and 12th in the NFL.

Two 1979 rookies, halfback Tony Nathan and fullback Steve Howell, could leap into the picture in 1980. Nathan exhibited flashes of great potential: a game-winning TD catch at Baltimore, a record 86-yard punt return against Buffalo. Howell performed well on special teams while awaiting his opportunity in the backfield.

OFFENSIVE LINE — Measuring the personnel changes by years of NFL duty, the Dolphins could open up with 21 years of experience for the five starters in the offensive line versus 48 years of experience in 1979. This youth brigade will be challenged to maintain a Dolphin running game that led the NFL in the 1970s by averaging 2,372 yards per season.

The guards represent 17 of those 21 years in the trenches. Bob Kuechenberg, a four-time Pro Bowl selection, returns to left guard after toiling half of 1978 and all of 1979 at tackle. Ed Newman, stationed at left guard for 35 of his 42 career starts, will move to the right side where former All-Pro Larry Little has been a fixture for 14 years.

"If Little can get himself into good shape," Shula says, "he can be useful to us as both a guard and a tackle. He has experience and know-how, plus leadership ability.

"With (tackle) Mike Current retiring and (center) Jim Langer indicating he won't return, that takes two proven veterans out of the lineup," Shula adds, "and Langer was recognized as possibly the all-time greatest center."

"We're going to give the young people an opportunity to do the job at tackle. They've all worked long and hard in our offseason weight-training program."

The 1979 first-round draftee Jon Giesler at left tackle and third-year pro Eric Laakso at right tackle will be pressed by Cleveland Green, an outstanding free-agent acquisition in 1978. Jeff Toews, a No. 2 pick behind Giesler, will provide depth at guard.

A knee injury to Langer thrust Mark Dennard into the center position for eight starts including the 1978 playoff at Pittsburgh, and the rookie made steady progress. But newcomer Dwight Stephenson, a second-round draftee from Alabama, could mount an immediate threat to Dennard.

RECEIVERS — One of pro football's deadliest big-play duos, Nat Moore and Duriel Harris, can disrupt any defense and dismantle some.

Moore, the Dolphins' leader in receptions for six consecutive years, tops the NFL in touchdown catches (28) in the three seasons he has worked in tandem with Harris. Moore has established club career records of 258 receptions, 4,186 yards and 38 TD catches. Last season he had a career-high 840 yards on 48 catches.

At split end, Harris established a Dolphin record with 10 catches for 180 yards against Green Bay in 1979 and had three other 100-yard games. He sports a career average of 17 yards per catch after grabbing 42 passes for 798 yards (19.0 average) last season.

Jimmy Cefalo has performed capably in two seasons, counting six touchdowns among his 18 receptions. Two draftees, Elmer Bailey of Minnesota and Eugene Byrd of Michigan State, could add quality and depth to the receiving corps.

Shula anticipates "an interesting battle" at tight end with "more depth and ability than we've had there in a long time." Bruce Hardy moved into the starting slot in 1978 when Andre Tillman fractured the femur of his right leg, and Hardy produced 386 yards on 30 receptions. A 1979 rookie Ronnie Lee, a strong blocker, could mount a serious bid. Tillman, a four-year regular, faced a slow and difficult rehabilitation.

Matt's passing game averaged a team-record 172.7 yards per game in 1979.

DEFENSIVE LINE — Durability and consistency have become successful traits of a Dolphin defensive line which helped limit nine opponents under 100 yards rushing in 1979 and ranked second in the NFL in run defense.

Nose tackle Bob Baumhower became a Pro Bowl starter after his third year of Dolphin-record tackles (131, 144 and 146). Baumhower extended his streak to 48 consecutive starts, and he had more quarterback sacks (6½) than his first two years combined.

Left end Vern Den Herder, 31, who has missed only three games in 142 since becoming a Dolphin, collected a team-leading nine quarterback sacks and was named MVP by his teammates. He earned a game ball with four QB sacks in a shutout of Baltimore.

Doc Betters, blossoming in his second year, claimed the starting job at right end in September when A. J. Duhe was injured, and Betters never relinquished it. The 6-foot-7 Betters tallied eight quarterback sacks. Duhe, however, will be a force as he has shown great potential since earning 1977 NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year honors.

Veteran tackle Carl Barisich, 29, has been a solid reserve for three seasons. Seven rookies will be vying for jobs in the defensive line with third-round draftee Bill Barnett of Nebraska the top contender.

LINEBACKERS — The key to Dolphins' swarming 3-4 defense has been a mobile and aggressive set of linebackers.

On the left side, Kim Bokamper became the Dolphins' first Pro Bowl linebacker in seven years. His versatility as a down lineman in passing situations has resulted in 14 quarterback sacks in the past two seasons. Bokamper's counterpart on the right side, Larry Gordon, has All-Pro potential with a reputation as a quick-hitting defender. Gordon and Bokamper formed a first-round quiniela in 1976; Gordon has topped 100 tackles each season and missed only one start in 62 games.

Inside linebacker Rusty Chambers, the team's leading tackler for a second time with 178 stops, epitomizes the robust and disciplined style of Dolphin defense. Chambers has operated alongside Steve Towle the last two seasons, but five-year veteran Towle has requested a trade. Towle holds the Dolphin career record of 765 tackles. If he stays, Towle will be challenged by veteran Ralph Ortega, who played on special teams the last eight games of 1979 after recovering from knee surgery.

The supporting cast includes 35-year-old Bob Matheson, who could play in his 200th NFL game in 1980. He still runs the 40-yard dash in 4.9 seconds. Earnest Rhone will be a valuable substitution on passing downs and could bid for an inside starting job, and 1979 rookie Mel Land should have greater awareness.

DEFENSIVE BACKS — If the Dolphins can develop experienced depth in the secondary, Miami should remain among the NFL's most respected defenses.

Strong safety Tim Foley, a forceful leader, achieved Pro Bowl status in his ninth season and contributed a career-high 112 tackles. Foley and left end Den Herder are the only defensive starters from the 1972 and 1973 Super Bowl champions.

Foley's coming off a great year," Shula says, "and we've got to work to tighten up our secondary. It hurt us in 1979 when we lost Glenn Blackwood (knee injury) because he made a big contribution as our fifth defensive back."

Free safety Neal Colzie, who intercepted five passes after being traded to Miami from Oakland, will be competing with second-year men Don Bessillieu and Blackwood. Another 1979 rookie, Mike Kozlowski, will switch from free to strong safety.

The Dolphins sought help at the corners by drafting Don McNeal of Alabama in the first round to challenge Norris Thomas and Gerald Small, a tandem for two seasons. It will take a real talent to dislodge either Thomas, a fierce hitter who has broken up 37 passes in three years as a starter, or Small, a big-play speedster who averages 25.7 yards on nine career interceptions.

Altogether, there will be 16 defensive backs competing for maybe eight jobs.

KICKERS — Rookie placekicker Uwe von Schamann silenced those who criticized Shula for waiving Garo Yepremian in 1979 when the newcomer hit 21 of 29 field-goal attempts including a streak of 10. Left-footed punter George Roberts has averaged 40.3 and 40.2 yards in two seasons of solid performances.

4th Year

Born Aug. 4, 1955

Alabama

(D2, 1977)

A barricade against the run and a quick pursuer, he has anchored the Dolphin defensive line with All-Pro talent. . . Alabama strongman has started 48 consecutive games in three seasons and consistently broken the Dolphin record for tackles by a lineman with totals of 131, 144 and 146. . . he collected 6½ quarterback sacks in 1979 and was voted to starting position in Pro Bowl — an honor given only one other Dolphin lineman, right end Sill Stanfill (1971-74). . . Sporting News and Inside Football Report named him All-AFC, and he was All-NFL second team by Associated Press. . . he had 10 initial hits and three assists in key 1979 victory over New England and 15 tackles when Dolphin defense held Houston without a touchdown. . . he picked up Cincinnati fumble and rounded 13 yards for TD Oct. 9, 1978 for first score by Dolphin lineman since 1969. . . Coach Don Shula cites "great leg strength unusual for most rangy players" in Baumhower's ability to hold his ground at nose tackle despite double-team blocking. . . NFL All-Rookie honors in 1977, he shared Football Digest's NFL Defensive Rookie of Year award with teammate A.J. Duhe. . . finest game as rookie saw him collect 19 tackles, two QB sacks and a fumble recovery at Cincinnati. . . he underwent surgery in June 1978 for damaged cartilage in left knee, missed almost all of 1978 training camp and finally had cyst removed from knee in January 1979. . . second-round draftee, 40th player in 1977.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: He was All-Southeastern Conference tackle twice at Alabama and he accumulated 246 stops as a three-year regular including 28 tackles for losses totalling 135 yards. . . he and New York Jets quarterback Richard Todd were 1975 teammates on Alabama team which topped Penn State, 13-6, in Sugar Bowl, and Baumhower impressed Dolphin coaches at Senior Bowl. . . full name Robert Glenn, born Aug. 4, 1955 in Portsmouth, Va., he played at Palm Beach Gardens High before transferring to Tuscaloosa, Ala., as senior. . . broadcasting major. . . he wears largest shoe among Dolphins, size 15. . . he opened Bachelors Three restaurant in Fort Lauderdale with Todd and Joe Namath as partners in March 1979. . . he shares condominium with Todd during offseason. . . he had lion cub Oscar for a pet for four months until April 1979 when he gave animal to Lion Country Safari in West Palm Beach. . . bachelor enjoys boating on his 26-foot Thunderbird Formula.

2nd Year

Born May 4, 1956

Georgia Tech

(D5, 1979)

A punishing tackler on special teams as a rookie, he will seek a promotion in the Dolphin secondary with a switch to free safety ... he collected 35 tackles including 23 initial hits, and his recovery of a bouncing football ruled to have hit a punt returner set up Dolphin touchdown in playoff at Pittsburgh ... the '46 Defense' wasn't named after him, but it was his cue as sixth defensive back in Dolphins' prevent defense ... he was assigned to track the ball on punts and kickoffs ... "You've got to be courageous. You've got to be a fool," he described that duty ... 4.6 seconds in 40-yard dash ... he recovered onside kick to preserve victory at Baltimore ... jitters before preseason opener caused him to forget kicking shoe at training camp when he was scheduled for kickoffs ... fifth-round draftee, 134th player in 1979.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: He earned All-American honors from Sporting News as four-year starter at Georgia Tech ... his interception and fumble recovery led to two touchdowns and MVP honor in East-West Shrine game, and he was voted best defensive back in Senior Bowl ... he piled up 192 tackles including 80 as sophomore, and he had five career interceptions ... he also returned 39 punts for 296 yards, and as freshman placekicker, he converted 22 of 26 PATs and 5 of 8 field-goal attempts ... full name Donald Andrew, born May 4, 1956 in Fort Benning, Ga., he was split end and defensive back at Kendrick High in Columbus, Ga. ... he and his wife Sandra were married Feb. 9, 1980 ... he saved the life of an unconscious woman July 9, 1980 when her car went crashing off an expressway, through two fences, finally sinking in deep lake near 13th green at Miami Lakes Country Club ... he pulled woman through a half-opened window only seconds before car disappeared in the lake ... he then three-putted from five feet for a double bogey.

In giant strides commensurate with his 6-foot-7 stature, he seized the starting job at right end for the last 14 games of 1979 ... he collared quarterbacks eight times, forced three fumbles and participated in 74 tackles ... an explosive pass-rusher with great reach, he grew a half-inch and added 10 pounds before his second Dolphin season ... he replaced injured A.J. Duhe in second game and didn't relinquish No. 1 spot until sprained arch slowed him before playoff game ... "It feels a little funny slipping around him (Duhe), but I know I don't want to sit either," Betters says ... tallest defensive lineman in Dolphin history, he wears the jersey once distinguished by tackle Manny Fernandez ... "We struck it rich to get a guy of Betters' size and ability in the sixth round," says Coach Don Shula. "Although he has that great height, he's got good body control" ... as a rookie, he started six games in Duhe's injury absence and he had four QB sacks ... sixth-round draftee, 163rd player in 1978.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: He collected 10 QB sacks for Nevada/Reno in 1977, led the Wolf Pack (8-3) with 82 tackles, also recovered four fumbles and caused four others ... he played three years as defensive tackle at Montana, then followed defensive coordinator John Smith to Reno for senior year ... born June 11, 1956 in Lincoln, Neb., he was raised in Chicago area and starred in football and basketball at Arlington High ... free-spirited bachelor once lived in his '65 van rather than a college apartment at Montana, and he enjoys backpacking and skiing at his offseason residence in Lake Tahoe, Nev.

2nd Year

Born Feb. 23, 1957

Texas

(D8b, 1979)

As the "nickel" back in the Dolphins' pass defense, he displayed unusual savvy for a rookie ... his alert reactions and good coverage figured in Miami allowing only five touchdown passes through 11 games ... an injury to his left knee was the bizarre result of his first football confrontation with older brother Lyle, 29, a Baltimore Colts safety, in Nov. 11 game in Orange Bowl ... Lyle was blocking for punt returner, and Glenn dodged him and landed awkwardly, tearing anterior cruciate ligaments ... he spent remainder of season on injured reserve ... "A very aware young player with a good future," Coach Don Shula says ... parents of the Blackwood Brothers had driven from New Orleans to Miami to see Dolphins shut out Colts, 19-0 ... Glenn participated in 25 tackles (17 initial hits) as a rookie, overcoming a broken right thumb in preseason ... eighth-round draftee, 215th player in 1979.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: A versatile three-year starter at Texas, he played both cornerback and safety ... he returned interception 30 yards for touchdown against Rice in 1977, and he collected 104 tackles over his last two seasons ... 1977 Longhorns were 11-0 before losing to Notre Dame in Cotton Bowl ... he suffered broken left wrist in 1978 but had interception in Sun Bowl victory to conclude 9-3 season ... Longhorns had outstanding secondary that included Johnnie Johnson (Rams), Derrick Hatchett (Colts) and Ricky Churchman (49ers) ... full name Glenn Allen, born Feb. 23, 1957 in San Antonio, he starred at Churchill High ... bachelor lives in Kenner, La.

Born Sept. 25, 1954

San Jose State

(D1b, 1976)

A rare weapon with a linebacker's swiftness and a lineman's bulk, he brings a double-edged sword to the Dolphin defense ... he reaped Pro Bowl honors in his third season, becoming the only Dolphin linebacker besides Nick Buoniconti (1972-73) to do it ... he performed capably as a fourth lineman in passing situations, and he accelerated his progress at outside linebacker ... pass-rush defensive scheme varied from 1977 and 1978 in that he assumed three-point stance in the line rather than blitz from a 3-4 alignment ... "Rushing the passer helps my confidence a lot," he says, "because I feel I'm doing what I do best. Once you've beaten your man, the quarterback is the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow" ... his bounty was eight QB sacks in 1978 plus two in a playoff loss to Houston ... a deep thigh bruise in 1979 opener and a twisted ankle at midseason caused him to miss three starts after 32 straight calls ... injuries contributed to stats dropping from 124 tackles (79 initial hits) in 1978 to only 68 stops last season ... his lone interception came in finale against N.Y. Jets ... he covers 40 yards in 4.7 seconds, even at 247 pounds ... he is only Dolphin linebacker ever to collect more than three QB sacks in a season ... he wore a cast protecting broken left thumb when he had two QB sacks and blocked a punt for a safety Oct. 29, 1978 against Baltimore, and he had end-zone interception in earlier shutout at Baltimore ... In his first NFL start, he was one of four rookies in defensive lineup in 1977 shutout at Buffalo ... he has blocked three field goals ... first-round draftee, 19th player in 1976 and only two picks after the Dolphins tapped linebacker Larry Gordon ... Bokamper's

Larry Csonka on LB Kim Bokamper smashing Csonka's toe in 1979 pregame warmup:

You know how those defensive guys are. They get excited early. It's that defensive attitude and mentality. Stomp all over everything. He'd make a good fullback.

rookie year was postponed by knee surgery when he tore ligaments and cartilage in left knee while covering kickoff in third preseason game.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: He was voted outstanding defensive player in East-West Shrine game, and he excelled at defensive end for San Jose State (9-2) when Spartans won the 1975 Pacific Coast Athletic Association title ... he also played in Blue-Gray and Senior Bowl ... born Sept. 25, 1954 in San Diego and raised in Milpitas, Ca., where he played tight end in high school ... he attended Concordia College in Moorhead, Minn., as freshman, then transferred to San Jose State College and finally San Jose State ... he and wife Colleen married 4-26-80) live in Plantation, Fl.

Nimble of mind and motion, he has displayed pass-catching skills of a potential starter while patiently marking two seasons as the Dolphins' third receiver ... six of his 13 career catches have been touchdowns, and he averages 20.4 yards on those 18 receptions ... his diving, end-zone catch on Don Strock's six-yard TD pass clinched a victory at Minnesota ... he snared four passes for 92 yards Sept. 30 at New York Jets ... his fine concentration in defensive back was apparent in leaping 30-yard catch against New England and 29-yard TD at Detroit in two victories that clinched AFC East title ... "In order for me to play my best, I've got to keep my confidence," he says, "no matter what it takes" ... he wears No. 81 jersey popularized by Dolphin original and 11-year veteran Howard Miller ... he led Dolphins receivers in 1979 preseason with 13 catches for 257 yards and two TDs when starter Nat Moore suffered back injury ... "He's just so much more aware of what he's trying to do," Coach Don Shula says, "and he goes out and does it" ... In rookie season, his 40-yard TD catch sparked 16-0 victory at Washington that steered Dolphins to playoff berth ... he dodged his way for 232 yards on 28 punt returns averaging 8.3 yards, in 1978 ... his debut in Orange Bowl saw him pull down TDs of 18 and 38 yards in preseason victory over St. Louis ... third-round draftee, 81st player in 1978.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: He was named MVP in both the Hula Bowl and Japan Bowl after an outstanding 1977 season at Penn State in which he caught 28 passes for 517 yards and five TDs ... he also led the nation with a 13.7-yard average on 18 punt returns for 247 yards, and his 67-yard punt return aided 42-30 victory over Arizona State in Fiesta Bowl ... he caught 56 passes for 1,058 yards and seven TDs in career ... one of top five rushers in Pennsylvania high school history, he was MVP in 1975 Cotton Bowl as freshman tailback with 55 yards rushing, 102 yards on three catches and two TDs in 41-20 victory over Baylor ... full name James Carmen, born Oct. 6, 1956 in Pittston, Pa., he rushed for 4,449 yards in three seasons (1971-73) at Pittston Area High ... he wrote five-part series for New York Times, published in July 1978, about his college recruiting experience and Penn State career ... bachelor works in offseason with Total Communications System in Pittsburgh area, and his B.S. in Journalism has directed him toward TV broadcasting.

His quiet, unassuming nature belies a fierce-hitting style on the field where he helped the Dolphins to a No. 2 ranking in NFL rushing defense in 1979 ... he has performed consistently well with team-leading totals of 151 and 178 tackles over the past two seasons ... modest Southerner attracts little fanfare despite 33 consecutive starts at inside linebacker ... "If I'm the leading tackler, I'm just doing my job," he says. "If I wasn't, there'd be some questions to be answered" ... his intelligent pursuit and crackling collisions draw praise from Coach Don Shula, who compares Chambers to former All-Pro Nick Buoniconti in thinking quickly on his feet ... "Really a heavy hitter — he really puts the hat on people," Shula says ... he collected 19 tackles in 1979 losing cause against Houston although Dolphins deprived Oilers of the end zone ... he suffered a fracture of transverse process in June 9 truck accident near his home in Loranger, La., near Baton Rouge ... exceptional quickness for pass coverage ... he has longest interception return by a linebacker in Dolphin history, a 49-yard runback of a tipped pass in Dec. 3, 1978 shutout at Washington ... he also recovered two fumbles and returned a blocked field goal 21 yards before fumbling in Oct. 9, 1978 shutout of Cincinnati ... he was acquired Oct. 7, 1976 on waivers from New Orleans when Saints had seven linebackers and needed an offensive lineman ... he excelled on special teams in 1977 and started final three games when Steve Towle suffered shoulder separation, and he earned game ball with 14 initial hits in season-ending victory over Buffalo ... originally signed as free agent by New Orleans in 1975, then waived

Sept. 9 and signed again Sept. 30 ... he returned fumble 38 yards for touchdown Oct. 1975 at San Francisco ... he started 1976 opener for Saints and was waived 25 days later. COLLEGE PERSONAL: ... was Most Valuable Player at Tulane in 1974 but was overlooked in 17-round NFL draft ... full name Russell Francis ... Born Feb. 13, 1953

Ohio State
(Trade, 1979)

He adopted a more aggressive style in his fifth NFL season and emerged as the Dolphins starting free safety with five interceptions ... a versatile athlete, he gained new respect as a hitter with 81 tackles (37 initial hits) after four years of relative idleness with Oakland Raiders ... three of his interceptions came in consecutive wins that boosted Dolphins to AFC East title — an end-zone theft at Baltimore, a 56-yard return against New England and another steal at Detroit ... "Neal has given us a lot of range in our defensive backfield," Coach Don Shula says, "and because of it, we are tougher in the middle" ... he was awarded one of the game balls against Chicago after his first Dolphin interception ... he had started only 10 of 63 games during four seasons (1975-78) at Oakland, but former Raider teammates greeted him with a Rolls-Royce at San Francisco airport when Dolphins made October visit ... he was "nickel" back in Oakland defense, playing behind right cornerback Willie Brown ... he had established NFL record with 655 yards on 48 punt returns (13.6-yard average) as a rookie, and he set Raider career marks for total returns (168) and yards (1,747) ... he sparked 1975 victories with four returns for 104 yards at Baltimore and three returns for 127 yards (long 64) at Denver ... he wore No. 45 as rookie before changing to his high school and college No. 20 in 1976 ... Raiders reached AFC Championship game three straight years (1975-77) and won Super Bowl XI by routing Minnesota, 32-14, when Colzie returned four punts for 43 yards ... first-round draftee, 24th player in 1973.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: He earned All-America honors from Sporting News in 1974 after playing 33 straight games at Ohio State (29-3-1) ... he intercepted 15 passes including two for touchdowns, and he led nation in 1973 with 40 punt returns for 679 yards and two TDs ... career totals were 60 returns for 855 yards, a 14.3-yard average ... he intercepted twice in 1974 Rose Bowl victory over Southern Cal ... he turned down $1,250 for bit part in movie "Black Sunday" in 1976 because he refused to wear a Pittsburgh Steelers uniform ... full name Cornelius Connie, born Feb. 28, 1953 in Fitzgerald, Ga., and raised in Coconut Grove, Fl., he was three-sport star at Coral Gables High and teammate of Dolphin linebacker Ralph Ortega on undefeated 1969 team coached by Nick Kotys ... bachelor lives in Oakland Hills, Ca., but he spends part of offseason working with Coconut Grove Jaycees, and he did public service spot for Save The Children, filmed in Appalachia.

Syracuse

(D1a, 1968)

An indefatigable war-horse for more than a decade, he expanded his legend by leading the Dolphins to an AFC East title while surpassing 8,000 career yards rushing in 1979 ... the most intimidating fullback in NFL history could climb to fourth place on the all-time rushing chart with an encore in 1980 ... he has gained 8,081 yards in 11 NFL seasons including Dolphin record 6,737 yards (1968-74 and 1979) and 1,344 yards for New York Giants (1976-78) ... he could overtake Joe Perry (8,378) and Jim Taylor (8,597) this season ... "When the big guy gets going," quarterback Bob Griese says, "you can't give him the ball enough" ... one month before his 33rd birthday, Csonka hammered 88 yards and three touchdowns in 39-24 triumph over New England that virtually clinched Dolphins' fifth straight division title with No. 39 in the backfield ... he had returned as a free agent Feb. 22, 1979 after a four-year absence, and he gained 837 yards on 220 carries ... his 13 TDs in 1979 tied the single-season record set by wide receiver Nat Moore in 1977 ... he stirred memories of consecutive 1,000-yard seasons in Dolphins' three Super Bowl campaigns (1971-73) ... "He's just so tough, gives so much of himself," Coach Don Shula says. "He's such a positive influence in the locker room" ... his comeback also was highlighted by three TDs against Chicago and a combined 177 yards in two triumphs over Buffalo ... he has topped 100 yards 20 times in his career ... his most overpowering performance was Super Bowl VIII when he gained 145 yards on 33 carries and scored two TDs in 24-7 rout of Minnesota ... he also broke a 49-yard run in Super Bowl VII conquest of Washington, and his Dolphin record of 1,117 yards rushing in 1972 stood until Delvin Williams cruised 1,258 yards in 1978 ... he bought dolphin-shaped tie tacks for his offensive linemen after 1972 season — each tie tack had five diamonds ... he carried 35 times for 1,051 yards and never fumbled in 1971 ... "If the line can get him four, he'll get four more on his own," Ed Newman says ... he holds Dolphin records of 51 TDs rushing and 57 total TDs, and he has scored another 1 TD and rushed for 891 yards in a dozen playoff games ... he signed World Football League contract March 31, 1974 with teammates Paul Warfield and Jim Kwik and played in Memphis, but the WFL folded in October 1975 and he joined New York Giants as free agent April 7, 1976 ... Giants were 14-30 during Csonka's stay, and his highest output was 155 yards on 22 carries against Chicago in snowy 1977 finale ... first-round draftee, eighth player in 1968.

COLLEGE PERSONAL — A consensus All-America at Syracuse in tradition of Jim Brown, Ernie Davis, Jim Nance and Floyd Little ... he rewrote school record with 2,934 yards on 597 carries (4.9 average) including 1,127 yards as senior in 1967 ... he was voted outstanding player in both College All-Star game against Greer and Coaches' All-America game ... full name Lawrence Richard, born Dec. 25, 1946 in Stow, Ohio, and raised on farm ... and wife Pam (married 1-29-66) have two sons, Doug (11-21-66) and Paul (11-20-68), and the family has moved back to Plantation, Fl., after four years in Lisbon, Ohio ... he owned restaurant, Pine Tree Inn, a 154-year-old former stagecoach stop in Lisbon, and a lounge, Stagger Lee's, in Fort Lauderdale, Fl., in 1979 ... he once appeared in 1975 episode of Six-Million-Dollar Man as Larry Bronco and he was kidnapped by former Chicago Bears linebacker Dick Butkus.

Central College (Ia.)

(D9, 1971)

Proof of his All-Pro talents can be found in 16-mm. game films rather than headlines ... the durable and dependable Iowan has missed Pro Bowl recognition the way John Wayne missed the Oscar for years until True Grit ... Dolphins' left end has played in 139 of the club's last 142 games, missing only three games with knee injury in 1977, and he has started 122 games in eight years as a regular ... his 65 quarterback sacks rank him second to Bill Stanfill (74) on all-time Dolphin list ... "He's a stabilizing force not only for the defensive line but for the whole team," Coach Don Shula says of the defensive co-captain. "He's the finest defensive end I've ever had play for me" ... he collected four QB sacks and earned game ball in 1979 shutout of Baltimore ... he finished with nine sacks and recovered three fumbles ... that boosted his career total to 12 fumble recoveries, three short of Dolphin record by Dick Anderson (1968-77) ... he has been voted outstanding defensive lineman by South Florida media five times in six years ... he earned All-AFC by Associated Press in 1972 after posting 10½ sacks during perfect season, and he got All-NFL honor by New York Post in 1975 when he had 11 sacks ... "I learned early that nothing comes easy, and anything worth doing is worth trying to do well," he says in reflecting rural work ethic ... his only touchdown came Oct. 29, 1978 on a fake field-goal attempt when he pawed a seven-yard pass from holder Don Strock in victory over Baltimore ... he wore No. 86 as a rookie and played behind Jim Riley, then was promoted in 1972 and started 88 consecutive games before tearing ligaments in his right knee Thanksgiving Day 1977 at St. Louis ... ninth-round draftee, 230th player in 1971.

6-4, 252

Louisiana State

4th Year

(D1, 1977)

Born Nov. 27, 1955

A fiery competitor and potential gusher of talent, he has been dogged by injuries since earning NFL Defensive Rookie of Year honors in 1977 ... he developed into a menacing pass-rusher with 15 quarterback sacks in first two seasons, even missing six starts in sophomore campaign ... he brings renewed determination to his fourth season after abdominal muscle pull reduced his playing time in 1979 ... "I have to be re-establishing myself," he says ... he started first two games at right end, but recurring pain inhibited his great acceleration and Doug Betters clamped onto starting job ... his right knee required surgery in August 1978 for damaged cartilage, sidelining him for five games ... he nevertheless produced eight QB sacks including two each in victories over division champions Dallas and New England ... he scored safety on end-zone sack in 12th game at Houston but bruised his right shoulder and missed another start ... he had team-leading seven sacks in 1977, three of them while earning a game ball in 14-10 victory over New York Jets ... biggest play as rookie was blocked punt which led to clinching TD in 17-5 triumph over New England ... he chugged 68 yards with a recovery of a Dan Fouts fumble in Oct. 15, 1978 victory at San Diego, longest fumble return in Dolphin history ... first-round draftee, 13th player in 1977 and seventh defensive lineman in bumper crop ... he was 18-day contract holdout for first training camp.

COLLEGE PERSONAL: A four-year starter at Louisiana State, he was voted outstanding defender for South in Senior Bowl coached by Dolphin staff ... he averaged 72 tackles per season and had 27 tackles for 133 yards in losses ... he won LSU scholarship by blocking three punts in high school all-star game in 1973 ... B.A. in general studies ... full name Adam Joseph, born Nov. 27, 1955, in New Orleans and raised in Reserve, La., he starred at Leon Goudchaux High ... he and wife Frances were married May 24, 1980 during her reign as Orange Bowl queen, and they live in Fort Lauderdale ... they met four years ago in Baton Rouge.

Purdue

10th Year

(D3, 1970)

Born Jan. 22, 1948

An inspiring leader on and off the field, he capped a decade of fine play in the Dolphin secondary with Pro Bowl recognition in 1979 ... his shrewd pass coverage and felsty tackling were evidenced by career-high totals of 13 passes broken up and 112 tackles, and he boosted his career mark to 22 interceptions ... he earned All-AFC honor from Inside Football Report and All-NFL second team from Newspaper Enterprise Association ... "I reaped the benefits of everybody else who was doing a good job," he says in his typically unpretentious way ... he recovered two fumbles in triumph over New England, and after shutout of Baltimore, he received game ball for gutsy effort on bruised left knee ... he ran his string to 42 consecutive starts in three seasons at strong safety before resting bothersome knee in regular-season finale ... a five-year starter at left cornerback (1971-75) until he was felled by torn ligament in right knee in 1976 ... emergence of rookie Norris Thomas precipitated Foley's switch to safety in fourth game of 1977 ... he has been voted outstanding defensive back by South Florida media for three straight years ... he earned game ball after interception and fumble recovery in 1978 shutout of Cincinnati ... he has unique place in NFL records by scoring two touchdowns with recovery of blocked punts Nov. 11, 1973 against Baltimore ... Foley and Bob Matheson blocked punts by David Lee, and Foley ran 8 and 5 yards for scores in 44-0 rout ... he could break Dolphin record for tackles by a defensive back as Dick Anderson (1968-77) collected 650 . . . he missed Super Bowl VII with separated left shoulder, he was idled three games in 1973 with a shoulder injury, and a broken thumb in 1975 kept him out of starting lineup for last five games . . . he has played in 138 Dolphin games, and record for defensive players belongs to fellow co-captain Vern Den Herder with 139 . . . third-round draftee, 55th player in 1970.

JON GIESLER

Offensive Tackle

79

6-4½, 260

2nd Year

Born Dec. 23, 1956

Michigan

(D1, 1979)

With added strength and self-assurance, he could land a starting job at left tackle in his second Dolphin season . . . first-round draftee, 24th player in 1979, he was schooled in pro techniques while serving special-team duty as rookie . . . third offensive lineman in draft behind Keith Dorney (Lions) and Kelvin Clark (Broncos) . . . he played behind former All-Pro lineman Bob Kuechenberg, who will return to familiar left guard position in 1980 . . . Giesler inherited No. 79 jersey of left tackle Wayne Moore, a starter in two Super Bowl triumphs . . .

he played some short-yardage and goal-line situations as equivalent of third tight end . . . "He's got good awareness and poise — he's got the groundwork now to compete for a No. 1 job," Coach Don Shula says . . . no Dolphin draftee since Doug Crusan (first round, 1968) has started a full season at offensive tackle . . . Giesler improved bench press to 350 pounds through offseason conditioning program, and he possesses quick feet for pass protection.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: An All-Big Ten tackle, the native Ohioan played in three successive Michigan victories (1976-78) over Ohio State, and Wolverines were 10-2 in both his junior and senior years . . . he twice won team's hustle award . . . CLEVELAND GREEN

6-3, 265

2nd Year

Born Sept. 11, 1957

Southern

(FA, 1979)

He overcame longshot odds and landed Dolphin position not only as a free-agent rookie but also as a defensive lineman making switch to offense ... he had raw potential in size and speed, but he hadn't been a blocker since high school ... he progressed with a solid contribution on special teams, and now he could challenge for starting tackle position after retirement of Mike Current ... "He has done nothing but continue to impress us from the first day he reported," Coach Don Shula says ... great agility, he scored more than 50 points twice for Dolphin basketball team in offseason ... a mixup in his college status resulted in pro scouts believing he was a junior in 1978, but he had played briefly on special teams as Southern University freshman in 1975 ... NCAA ruled he was ineligible for 1979, too late to inform scouts ... his coach called Dolphin defensive coordinator Bill Arnsparger to request tryout for Green.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: He was a three-year starter at defensive end for Southern and was selected to play in Black All-Star game but he declined ... he had more than 100 tackles in each of his last two years at Southern, and he collected 34 quarterback sacks ... his high school coach at Hinds Agricultural High in Utica, Miss., had told him he was suited for offensive line ... full name Cleveland Carl, born Sept. 11, 1957 in Bolton, Miss., he was youngest of 10 children raised on farm near Bolton ... B.S. in agriculture ... he and wife Wendlyn live in Miami with their son Kendric (1-14-79).

BOB GRIESE

Quarterback

12

6-1, 190

14th Year

Born Feb. 3, 1945

Purdue

(D1, 1967)

Renowned for his poised leadership and ingenious play-calling, he has sustained the Dolphin offense with a flair for winning since 1967 ... the bespectacled quarterback could become the 14th passer in the NFL's exclusive 25,000-yard club in 1980 ... he has presided over 99 of the 127 wins in Dolphin history (99-60-3) and has a .705 winning percentage (89-37-1) under Coach Don Shula ... "cornerstone of the franchise" Dolphin owner Joseph Robbie calls him ...

consensus All-Pro quarterback in 1971 and 1977, he has made six appearances in Pro Bowl (1970-71-73-74-77-78) and has been voted team's Most Valuable Player six times by South Florida media ... he handles adversity with equanimity, never so well as in 1979 when being relegated to bench in November and winning twice in relief ... he sparked three straight triumphs that clinched AFC East crown, beginning with two touchdown passes at Baltimore, then an inspired 26-point second half against New England, and finally a 17-of-22 display of marksmanship at Detroit ... "With all the things he suffered, he really took it like a man," Coach Don Shula said, "and you just admire him all the more" ... he completed 34 of 49 passes (69.4 percent) for 458 yards, five TDs and only one interception in that three-game surge to division championship ... he has completed 59.7 percent of his passes (936 of 1,568) over past six seasons including an NFL-leading 63 percent in 1978 ... he tops all active quarterbacks in TD passes (186) and victories (99) while adroitly directing the NFL's most productive running attack of the 1970s — averaging 2,372 yards per season ... "He's probably the most unselfish guy I've ever been around," Shula says. "He gets as much thrill calling the right running play for a touchdown as he does connecting on a bomb. That's just his makeup" ... major injuries have sidelined him four times — bruised right knee (5 games in 1969), broken right leg and dislocated ankle (9 games in 1972), torn tendons in right foot (4 games in 1975) and stretched ligaments in left knee (5 games in 1978) ... he passed for 296 yards and three TDs at New York Jets in 1979 despite hamstring pull that contributed to his slump ... "A quarterback gets too much credit for winning and too much blame for losing," Griese contends ... a pair of his eyeglasses are exhibited in Pro Football Hall of Fame as he was first quarterback to wear them ... he tried using contact lenses in 1977 preseason but experienced double vision because weaker eye with amblyopia wasn't coordinating with left eye ... he required the prisms in eyeglasses and endured "a constant cloud of uncertainty" in making switch ... he responded with league-leading 22 TD passes including a memorable six TDs in 55-14 rout on Thanksgiving Day at St. Louis ... he was only one TD shy of NFL record, and he didn't play fourth quarter ... he received Maxwell Club's coveted Bert Bell Award as NFL Player of Year in 1977 ... he was legally blind (20-200 vision) in right eye when he marshaled two Super Bowl victories ... in Super Bowl VII against Washington, he completed six straight passes for 75 yards and a TD (another TD was nullified by penalty) as Dolphins built 14-0 halftime lead on way to 14-7 triumph ... in three-game playoff sweep to Super Bowl VII triumph over Minnesota, he completed 20 of 31 passes for 266 yards ... he possesses a 49-11 mark (.817) as "pitcher of record" in Orange Bowl in 1970s including a 23-game home winning streak from 1971 to 1974, and he compiled a 43-8-1 record (.836) in 52 games spanning 1971 through 1974 ... his single-game feats include three consecutive passes for TDs against New England Oct. 17, 1971; four TD passes in first half to Paul Warfield against Detroit Dec. 15, 1973; and 349 yards passing in losing cause at Houston Nov. 20, 1978 ... as a rookie, he set AFL record of 122 pass attempts without an interception, and he got his first victory as a starter by tossing 31-yard TD pass to Howard Twilley on 4th-and-18 with 1:01 remaining against Buffalo Nov. 26, 1967 ... first-round draftee, 4th player in 1967, highest Dolphin pick in history of common draft.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: A two-time All-American at Purdue, he was runnerup to Florida's Steve Spurrier in 1966 Heisman Trophy voting ... he led Bollermakers to 14-13 victory over Southern Cal in Rose Bowl ... as junior he completed 19 of 22 passes in 25-21 upset of Notre Dame ... Purdue career marks were 348 completions in 609 attempts (57.1 percent) for 4,402 yards, and he kicked 75 conversions ... B.S. in Industrial management ... full name Robert Allen, born Feb. 3, 1945 in Evansville, Ind., he starred in three sports at Rex Mundi High and had 17-0 pitching record before losing in 1963 American Legion World Series ... he and wife Judi (married 6-10-67) live in Coral Gables with their three sons Scott (9-17-68), Jeff (10-20-70) and Brian (3-18-75) ... he coaches son's Khoury League baseball team ... dedicated to raising funds for children's charities and national sports chairman for Muscular Dystrophy Association ... he manages real estate holdings, serves as director of vision education for American Optical and does clothing endorsements for Sears ... he was inducted in 1979 into Florida Sports Hall of Fame.

It's like a duck going across the lake. He looks like he's going so effortlessly, but below the surface, he's paddling like crazy. It's just my way not to show emotion. I'm more concerned about getting the next touchdown.

BRUCE HARDY

Tight End

84

3rd Year
Born June 1, 1956

Arizona State
(D9, 1978)

An earnest blocker and clutch receiver, he completed an unusual metamorphosis from college quarterback to pro lineman as Dolphins' starting tight end in 1979... he balanced Dolphin passing game with 30 receptions for 386 yards and three touchdowns while applying himself to goal of improved blocking... "He's very intelligent and makes very few errors," Coach Don Shula says, "and he's a good competitor with excellent hands"... he endured slight shoulder separation and started 15 games including playoff... he caught 10 passes for 124 yards in his first three starts... he is the only late-round draftee to start in Dolphins' offense since 12th-round wide receiver Howard Twilley in 1966... he inherited job when four-year regular Andre Tillman suffered broken leg in 1979 preseason... his versatility boosted his job prospects as ninth-round draftee, 247th player in 1978... he contributed 20 tackles (10 initial hits) on special teams and was part-time snapper on punts... his third and fourth NFL receptions were touchdowns as he played in double-tight end formations... he also took two snaps from center as QB against Chicago Sept. 23, 1979 when three quarterbacks were disabled...

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: He caught 47 passes for 547 yards and two TDs at Arizona State after switching from quarterback in 1975 opener to tight end... he snared 19 passes for 269 yards as senior, and Dolphin scouts spotted him in Can-Am Bowl... full name Bruce Alan, born June 1, 1956 in Murray, Utah, he was rated nation's outstanding prep athlete in April 29, 1974 Sports Illustrated cover story... he was Utah's football and basketball Most Valuable Player in both junior and senior years at Blingham High in Copperton and was twice all-state in baseball... he scored 1,150 points in three-year prep basketball career... B.S. in business administration... bachelor lives in West Jordan, Utah.

DURIEL HARRIS

Wide Receiver

82

5-11, 184
5th Year
Born Nov. 27, 1954

New Mexico St.
(D3, 1976)

Swift and graceful with a knack for acrobatic catches, he epitomizes the big-play receiver... he will surpass 3,000 yards in his fifth season and rise to No. 3 on the all-time Dolphin chart with another productive year... his diving and juggling catches are masterpieces for highlight films... he averaged 19 yards per reception in 1979 with career-high 798 yards on 42 catches, and he snagged seven-yard touchdown pass in playoff loss at Pittsburgh... he formed awesome partnership with Nat Moore for a combined 90 receptions and 1,638 yards — almost a mile, and a Dolphin record for wide receiver duo... "Nat and myself are aware of what each other can do," he says. "We try to help each other by taking out a safety, and just working together opens things up"... he collected four 100-yard games in 1979 to equal record by Paul Warfield in 1971... he established Dolphin single-game records with 10 catches for 180 yards Oct. 28, 1979 against Green Bay, and 9 of 10 were delivered by quarterback Bob Griese including 37-yard TD to Ignite 27-7 rout... his other 100-yard efforts came against Seattle, at Cleveland and at Baltimore... he missed one game with groin pull... he has never fumbled in four seasons, handling football 212 times including receptions and kick returns... "The concentration he shows catching deflected balls is uncanny," Coach Don Shula says... he has impressive 26.1-yard career average on 50 kickoff returns for 1,307 yards... he was named AFC's outstanding kick returner by Players' Association and Pro Football Weekly with NFL-leading 32.9-yard average as rookie in 1976... three of his six 100-yard games have come against Baltimore (5 for 116 as rookie, 4 for 127 in 1977 and 7 for 116 in 1979)... combining passes and kick returns, he has averaged 18.9 yards (203 for 3,831) every time he has football... he wore No. 26 as rookie because veterans had taken all numbers in 80s, and he missed two games that season with sprained ankle... third-round draftee, 80th player in 1976.

COLLEGE PERSONAL: An All-Missouri Valley Conference selection as senior, he was "lonesome end" in Wishbone offense at New Mexico State but still caught 89 passes for 1,562 yards (17.5 average) and 13 TDs... his father, Durriel Sr., was elevated in 1980 to head football coach at Charlton-Pollard High in Beaumont, Tex... full name Durriel LaDon Jr., born Nov. 27, 1954 in Port Arthur, Tex., and close neighbor of Baltimore Colts running back Joe Washington... bachelor has Sunday morning radio show during offseason in Miami.

2nd Year

Born Dec. 20, 1956

Baylor

(D4, 1979)

As the heir apparent to Larry Csonka, he has exceptional quickness for fullback and could bolster Dolphin offense as third-down receiver ... he caught two passes for 21 yards in triumph at Baltimore ... he was No. 3 fullback behind Csonka and Norm Bulaich for first half of rookie season, but he had outlasted veterans Jim Braxton (waived) and Leroy Harris (traded) to earn spot on roster ... a crackling blocker from his role in college Veer offense ... he played sparingly with three carries for eight yards and three receptions for 23 yards ... in preseason he netted only 19 yards on 10 carries but caught five passes for 45 yards ... hamstring pull and broken little finger on right hand were annoyances in rookie year ... fourth-round draftee, 107th player in 1979 ... he runs consistent 4.6 seconds in 40-yard dash.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: He formed a rugged duo in Baylor backfield with Greg Hawthorne, No. 1 choice of Pittsburgh Steelers in 1979 ... he gained 1,064 yards on 208 carries and scored three touchdowns in career, and he caught 12 passes for 63 yards ... his four-year rushing totals were 215, 165, 387 and 297 and he averaged 7.2 yards per carry as junior with 67-yard spurt against Texas A&M ... B.S. in physical education ... full name Stephen Glen, born Dec. 20, 1956 in Corsicana, Tex., he was captain in four sports at Waxahachie High and he once rushed for 350 yards in a game ... he and wife June (married 5-21-78) live in Miami Lakes, and he participated in Dolphin offseason conditioning program.

2nd Year

Born Feb. 24, 1956

Colorado

(D10b, 1979)

He parlayed competitiveness and natural ability into a spot in the defensive backfield, becoming the first-ever Dolphin rookie to make a transition from running back ... he intercepted two passes in preseason victory at Minnesota and showed a keen mind for intricacies of defense ... he became

"nickel" back for final five games, replacing injured rookie Glenn Blackwood ... "Having been beaten up for four years, it's a good feeling when I put a hit on someone else," he says ... he collected 31 tackles (22 initial hits) with good coverage on special teams ... he returned four kickoffs for 85 yards and three punts for 21 yards (106 total return yards) and he had four fair catches ... he also studied Dolphin passing assignments in practicing at wide receiver ... he started regular-season finale against New York Jets when strong safety Tim Foley rested a bruised knee ... 10th-round draftee, 272nd player in draft.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: An injury-plagued tailback at Colorado, he gained 239 yards as junior and 165 yards as senior ... Dolphin scouts were impressed by his tenacity ... broken rib in 1977 twice caused punctured lung, but he returned from six-game absence and had 42-yard touchdown jaunt and 55-yard tailback option pass for TD in victory over Iowa State ... as senior he recovered from badly dislocated elbow after doctor advised his football career was finished ... he earned California all-state honors at Mira Costa Junior College in 1976 by rushing for 1,100 yards ... full name Michael John, born Feb. 24, 1956 in Encinitas, Ca., he was basketball MVP at San Dieguito High ... he and wife Kristy live in Carlsbad, Ca., with daughters Kemery (11-28-77) and Brynn (5-25-79).

11th Year

Born Oct. 14, 1947

Notre Dame

(FA, 1970)

A peerless technician with recognized skills in every offensive line position, he represents one of the last links to the Super Bowl blocking wall of the early 1970s ... a four-time Pro Bowl selection (1974-75-77-78), he was named All-NFL in 1978 by Associated Press when he started eight times at guard and seven times at tackle on left side of Dolphin line ... "It takes pride and an obsession for details to be an offensive lineman," he says, and his boundlessly competitive spirit has been applied to mastering guard, tackle and center assignments ... he earned Sporting News All-AFC honor at tackle when simultaneously voted to Pro Bowl at guard ... despite sprained knee he started all 17 games including playoff at left tackle in 1979 but will return to left guard to make room for 1979 first-round draftee Jon Giesler ... he has played in 146 games including 13 playoff starts — only Dolphin to play in all 13 — and he ranks behind only Bob Griese (160), Larry Little (159) and Norm Evans (147) in career Dolphin starts with 140 ... Coach Don Shula calls him "a street fighter — he doesn't know how to quit" ... he replaced injured Maxie Williams in ninth game of 1970 rookie season and had 53 consecutive starts before suffering fractured left forearm in 13th game of 1973 ... two weeks later he returned to lineup for playoffs and he neutralized All-Pro tackle Alan Page in Super Bowl VIII victory over Minnesota ... he mounted another 42 straight starts before missing last four games of 1976 with bone chips in left ankle ... he made remarkable recovery in 1977 from broken back (two fractures of transverse process), sustaining injury Aug. 13 but missing only two regular-season starts ... 28 of his 140 starts have been at left tackle including three games in 1974 to alleviate manpower shortage ... fourth-round draftee by Philadelphia, 80th player in 1969, he faulted himself for being cut by Eagles ... he was placed on Atlanta taxi squad, then cut a week later ... he played seven games

Guard Bob Kuechenberg on Dolphin quarterbacks:

When Bob Griese's in there, he's a master. When Don Strock's in there, he's a gutsy operator. We're just fortunate to have two great quarterbacks.

(five without pay) with 1969 Chicago Owls of semipro Continental League and was selling business forms when signed as free agent by Dolphins in 1970 ... he played head-to-head against older brother Rudy on special teams in 1970 game with Cleveland.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: He was voted Notre Dame's outstanding defensive lineman in 1968 while also playing offensive tackle ... he played third base on Fighting Irish baseball squad ... B.A. in economics ... full name Robert John, born Oct. 14, 1947 in Gary, Ind., one of nine children, and raised in Hobart, Ind. ... he rode in gunnysack on dad's back for rodeo clown act, and dad was Human Cannonball before Kooch was born ... he owns Interior Arts Inc., selling oil paintings to customers at home rather than in art gallery, and he travels around the globe as sports marketing director for Pan Am World Airways ... he and wife Marilyn are renovating an old mansion on Star Island, Miami Beach ... he has two sons, Bryan, 9, and Erik, 7, by a previous marriage.

Games/Starts — 1970 (9-5); 1971 (14-14); 1972 (14-14); 1973 (13-13); 1974 (14-14); 1975 (14-14); 1976 (10-10); 1977 (14-12); 1978 (16-15); 1979 (16-16). Playoffs (13-13). TOTAL: 146-140.

3rd Year

Born Nov. 29, 1956

Tulane
(D4b, 1978)

His industrious attitude and rapid progress at both guard and tackle have marked him for a bright future in Dolphin offensive line ... a contender for starting tackle job, he had to overcome a two-month hiatus with ankle injury in 1979 ... he started twice at right guard in November 1979 for injured Larry Little and was capable fill-in at tackle ... blond giant has learned from established All-Pros like Kuechenberg, Langer and Little ... "He's intelligent, strong and fast enough," Coach Don Shula says. "He will be in the hunt to start" ... he provided valuable relief work in 1978 as rookie, and when Little was sidelined by knee and ankle injuries, he was impressive starter in playoff against Houston ... he is only player in Dolphin history whose first start came in playoff game, and coaches didn't inform him of assignment until day of game to reduce jitters ... "They know how much energy I would have burned up thinking about it," he said ... good balance and foot movement for pass blocking ... he had torn fibers of soleus tendon in his left ankle Aug. 11, 1979 and hobbled on crutches for five weeks ... he was activated Oct. 13 from injured reserve list ... fourth-round draftee, 106th player in 1978.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: He earned All-South Independent honors at Tulane and was All-America honorable mention by Associated Press ... B.S. in geology ... full name Eric Henry, born Nov. 29, 1956 in New York, he was raised in Sterling, Ct., and starred in football and track at Killington High in Danielson, Ct. ... his father was soccer player in Finland ... name pronounced LOCK-so ... bacheior lives in Pembroke Pines.

2nd Year

Born Dec. 24, 1956

Baylor
(D3c, 1979)

He could develop into an intimidating blocker in bolstering Dolphin running attack, and he has untapped potential as a receiver ... he performed in goal-line offense and other double-tight end situations as a rookie, and he caught two passes for 14 yards on opening touchdown drive in victory at Detroit ... "He has worked well in practice catching the ball," Coach Don Shula says, "and he's always been a good blocker" ... he ousted veteran Laird McCreary in 1979 training camp competition ... he snared 21-yard touchdown pass in preseason triumph at Minnesota ... he runs 40 yards in 4.8 seconds ... third-round draftee, 65th player in 1979 and third tight end behind Kellen Winslow (Chargers) and Dan Ross (Bengals).

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: A four-year starter at Baylor, he played in Senior Bowl, Hula Bowl and East-West Shrine game ... he caught 53 passes for 694 yards and five TDs in career, and he blocked for Dolphin teammate Steve Howell ... he was Southwest Conference Freshman of the Year in 1975 when he scored on 80-yard pass against Texas A&M ... he was coached by Cotton Davidson, former AFL Oakland Raiders quarterback (1962-69) ... full name Ronnie Van, born Dec. 24, 1956 in Pine Bluff, Ark., he was teammate of Earl Campbell at John Tyler High in Tyler, Tex., in capturing state championship in 1973 ... he and wife Tessie live in Miami Lakes with their son LaWhalen (1-7-76).

Tim Foley on tackling Chicago Bears' Walter Payton:

I went for his first move when he was already on his third. I guessed right.

LARRY LITTLE

Guard/Tackle

6-1, 260
14th Year
Born Nov. 2, 1945

Bethune-Cookman
(Trade, 1969)

A rumbling giant in the Dolphin trenches for 11 years, he has built a mountain of achievements by which any succeeding All-Pro blocker will be compared ... his very presence in leading a sweep was an intimidating force in a Miami running attack which led the NFL in the 1970s at 2,372 yards per season ... he has worn All-Pro laurels six times and was a Pro Bowl selection four consecutive times (1971-74), and he is only player ever named AFC's outstanding offensive lineman three straight times (1970-72) by Players' Association ... he has resolved to give another solid performance in his 14th and final NFL season in 1980 ... "I came in the back door (as 1967 free agent) and I want to go out the front door as a winner," he says ... he was named All-NFL six times by Pro Football Writers (1971-75 and 1977) and he earned that honor five times from Associated Press ... he was troubled by sore left ankle throughout 1979 but missed only two starts ... he has played in 165 games and started 161 for Dolphins, trailing only quarterback Bob Griese (168-160) in club history ... he needs 11 games to reach 200 in career which began in San Diego in 1967 ... "A real inspiration for us," Coach Don Shula says, "not just for the way he's performed but also for his influence on our younger players" ... he logged streaks of 64 and 51 straight starts from 1969 to 1977 around one missed game to rest an injured shoulder prior to 1973 playoffs ... his second streak was stopped when he sprained knee in fifth game of 1977 ... altogether he has missed only six starts in the Dolphins' 157 games under Shula in the 1970s ... he has started 12 of Dolphins' 13 playoff games, absent only in 1978 against Houston with sprained knee and ankle, and he underwent surgery on left ankle in March 1979 ... he has played right tackle (four starts in 1976) during injury crunch and could be utilized that way in 1980 ... native Floridian was first Dolphin player inducted into Florida Sports Hall of Fame on March 6, 1978 ... "I rank this higher than any of the other honors I've gotten," he says ... National 1,000-Yard Club in Appleton, Wis., named him NFL's outstanding blocker in 1972 after Dolphins rushed for NFL-record 2,960 yards in perfect season ... he signed for $750 bonus as free agent for San Diego in 1967 and was traded July 2, 1969 ironically for high school teammate Mack Lamb, a Dolphin cornerback.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: He was two-way tackle at Bethune-Cookman College in Daytona Beach ... B.A. in sociology ... full name Larry Chatmon, born Nov. 2, 1945 in Groveland, Ga., he starred at Booker T. Washington High in Miami ... teammates call him "Chicken" after his favorite food, and he invited O.J. Simpson to dinner for mother Ida's home-cooking on eve of Simpson's 203-yard day against 1976 Dolphins ... he launched Gold Coast Summer Camp for underprivileged kids in 1970, begun on South Miami Beach with tents and cots ... It now provides recreation for 300 youngsters in free two-week program every June at Florida Memorial College and is backed by $30,000 United Way grant ... he and wife Rosie live in Miami with daughter Damita (8-11-78) ... he is listed in Who's Who in Black America and he holds an honorary doctorate of humanities from Biscayne College in 1972.

Games/Starts — San Diego 1967 (10-0); 1968 (14-4); Miami 1969 (11-10); 1970 (14-14); 1971 (14-14); 1972 (14-14); 1973 (13-13); 1974 (14-14); 1975 (14-14); 1976 (14-14); 1977 (14-13); 1978 (16-15); 1979 (15-14). Playoffs (12-12). TOTAL: 189-165. Miami 165-161. San Diego 24-4.

BOB MATHESON

6-4, 225
14th Year
Born Nov. 25, 1944

Duke
(Trade, 1971)

As catalyst in the evolution of the three-man defensive line, he has niche in NFL and Dolphin history while aiming for a 200th game at linebacker in 1980 ... he has been integral part of consistent Dolphin defense for a decade, still running 40-yard dash in 4.9 seconds and tackling with authority ... he has played in 196 games as the elder statesman of pro linebackers, and his 137 games in Miami are most ever by a Dolphin linebacker ... he proved himself agile as ever in his 13th season, starting three games for injured Kim Bokamper and earning game ball with 28-yard interception return against Seattle ... Dolphins acquired him Sept. 1, 1971 from Cleveland for second-round draft choice, and he had played four seasons with Browns after being first-round draftee, 18th player in 1967 ... he became the quintessence of Coach Don Shula's "situation substitution" approach in 1972 as fourth linebacker in passing situations, having option to blitz quarterback or retreat into pass coverage ... "53 Defense" was named not only for Matheson's jersey number but also for creating five short zones and three deep zones in pass defense ... "I couldn't play a normal position so they created one for me," Matheson modestly said, but Dolphins won consecutive Super Bowls aided by his unique role ... he rose to full-time duty (1974-77) with 42 starts over four seasons ... he led Dolphins with 103 tackles in 1974 when he started last six games and AFC playoff for injured Doug Swift ... he was voted team's outstanding linebacker in 1975 with 109 tackles on weak side, and he moved to strong side in 1976 when Swift retired for medical school ... he had career-high 130 tackles (73 initial hits) in 1977 although he shared inside spot until knee injury sidelined Mike Kolen in sixth game ... he started three early games in 1978 until suffering two fractures of transverse process in lower back ... only other injury absence saw him miss three starts in 1976 with torn calf muscle ... "I've been very fortunate not to have had any crippling-type injuries," he says, "and I do make it a point not to get out of shape" ... his nine interceptions for Dolphins include 34-yard

(D6, 1973)

His torpedo-like blocking charge has made him a powerful part of the Dolphins' offensive line and able successor to Larry Little at right guard ... uncommonly strong and mobile, he became full-time starter in his seventh season and logged 17 starts including playoff at left guard in 1979 ... he has title of all-time strongest Dolphin with 485 pounds in bench press, and he can do 10 or more repetitions of 400 pounds ... "Working hard has never been an obstacle to me," he says ... he has 42 career starts with 35 at left guard and 7 at right guard, and his last 25 starts (8 in 1978 and 17 in 1979) have been with Bob Kuechenberg alongside at tackle ... he moves to right side in 1980 where he had first pro start in 1973 finale as Little rested sore shoulder ... "An overpriced insurance policy finally paid off," he describes his diligent bid for starting role ... Dolphins earned dividends as early as 1974 when Newman started four games at left guard, then again in 1976 when he toiled four games at each guard position when injuries forced adjustments ... he had played in 83 consecutive games and started 5th through 12th games in 1978 but he tore ligaments in left knee and was idled the rest of the season ... "I don't come back as good as, I come back better," he resolved after knee surgery ... his obsession for superb conditioning sprang from his courageous victory over cancer when malignant tumor on thyroid gland required two throat operations in January 1975 ... a tough regimen of weightlifting, bicycling and swimming restored his strength ... "I'm no medical hero," he insists, "but I think people can overcome problems with determination" ... sixth-round draftee, 156th player in 1973 ... Miami's only drafted offensive lineman in 1970s to start more than 10 games.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: An All-Atlantic Coast Conference guard and defensive tackle at Duke, he twice won the ACC heavyweight wrestling crown ... B.S. in psychology ... full name Edward Kenneth, born June 4, 1951 in New York, he starred at Syosset High on Long Island ... he and wife Cathy (married 1-23-77) live in Miami with their daughter Stephani (3-26-79) ... he has a cat named "Monte Clark" after his first Dolphin offensive line coach ... he works in sales program for Jartran Trucking ... he did TV promotional spot for United Way in 1980 offseason.

A mainstay in the Dolphins' pass defense with his range and quickness, he has been a valuable "specialist" the past two seasons ... he has replaced Steve Towle in second-and-long and third-and-long situations ... he collected a career-high 78 tackles (45 initial hits) in 1979 with interceptions in early triumphs over Buffalo and Seattle, and he had fumble recovery in victory over New England ... he was awarded game ball Oct. 28 by playing with personal tragedy after learning of father's death in Arkansas hometown ... an inspiration to rookie free agents, he was overlooked in 17-round draft in 1975 but made Dolphin roster with his rousing tackles ... he also overcame injury setbacks with surgery on both knees in 1976 and 1977 ... he participated in 13 tackles as starter in 1978 victory over St. Louis when injuries decked Towle and Bob Matheson, and he intercepted deflected pass on final play of 28-21 triumph at San Diego ... "When Coach Shula would run everybody until they passed out," he describes his hard-working approach, "I always felt I had to be the last one who passed out" ... he had chipped bone in elbow in 1978 but now has played in 32 consecutive games ... he played extensively at weakside linebacker in last four games of 1975 and produced 15 tackles (10 initial hits) in victory over Buffalo ... he had successfully rehabilitated right knee after tearing ligaments in 1976 preseason, but then he damaged ligaments in left knee in fourth game of 1977 and spent another year on injured reserve.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: He was NAIA All-American at Henderson State in Arkadelphia, Ark., in 1974 when Reddies were national runnersup to Texas A&I ... a walk-on in college as well as in NFL ... full name Earnest Calvin, born Aug. 20, 1953 in Ogden, Ark., he played at Rankin Street High in Ashdown, Ark. ... bachelor lives in Miami Lakes.

Born June 10, 1955

He quickly established himself among the NFL's finest punters with high, non-returnable kicks in two noteworthy seasons with Dolphins ... left-footed kicker has averaged 40.3 and 40.2 yards, and in 1979, with excellent coverage by teammates, he led NFL with a miniscule 5.2-yard average on 25 returns of his punts ... Dolphins led NFL with only 131 yards in opponent punt returns ... he ranked fifth in NFL as rookie with 34.3-yard net average, and he improved to 34.6-yard mark in 1979 to place second in AFC and eighth in NFL ... he boomed the longest net punt in Dolphin history when his 68-yarder rolled dead on the 11-yard-line Oct. 28 against Green Bay, and he averaged 48 yards (long 63) with four punts in victory over New England ... his 48.6-yard average (5 punts for 243 yards) in 1978 playoff against Houston was second-best in Dolphin records ... his best net performance was 42-yard effort Sept. 17, 1978 against Buffalo after 4-186 (46.5) with a long of 59 ...

he suffered a slight hamstring pull in fifth game of 1979 when New York Jets' Donald Dykes blocked a punt and teammate Johnny Lynn recovered it in the end zone for a touchdown ... he did not punt at all Sept. 23, 1979 against Chicago — first time in Dolphin history that the punter got a day off ... he answered emergency call only five days before 1978 opener when Dolphin punters Larry Seiple and Mike Michel both suffered knee injuries in preseason finale ... he had been waived by Washington after averaging 42.2 yards on 9 punts in preseason, and he reported to Minnesota training camp where Dolphins reached him by phone ... he handled kickoffs for six games as a rookie.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: He was walk-on punter at Virginia Tech in spring 1976, and he set school records of 41.5 and 42.1 yards in consecutive years ... B.A. in urban affairs with long-range goal of law school ... full name George William, born June 10, 1955 in Lynchburg, Va., he was placekicker and receiver at E.C. Glass High ... left-handed golfer has a six handicap, and he placed second in Brian Piccolo Cancer Research golf tourney in Chicago in June.

Born Aug. 10, 1956

A greyhound-swift cornerback who delivers the big play, he has rapidly matured into a key contributor to the Dolphins' defense ... fastest Dolphin with consistent 4.5 seconds for 40-yard dash, he can neutralize opponents' deep threat with excellent coverage ... he has 21 consecutive starts since being promoted in last month of 1978 rookie season, and he has swiped nine passes and returned them 231 yards (25.7-yard average) ... four of his runbacks have been sprints of 39, 40, 40 and 46 yards, and 6 of his 9 interceptions have occurred inside Dolphins' 10-yard-line ... his third-quarter theft at 9-yard line sparked comeback victory over Seattle, and his end-zone interception preserved shutout of Baltimore in 1979 ... as a rookie, he jetted 46 yards for clinching touchdown against Oakland after ball ricocheted off chest of Raiders' Cliff Branch ... he diagnosed flea-flicker pass and intercepted near goal line in 1978 shutout of Washington, and in home victories over New England, he has contributed interceptions of 40 and 32 yards ... he also started 1978 opener for Curtis Johnson and

DE Doug Betters on meeting singer Jimmy Buffett:

He told me he always wanted to be a football player but he was too small. I told him I always wanted to be a rock 'n' roll star but I was too big.

played extensively as "nickel" back while serving on special teams (twice recovering fumbled punts) ... "He's one of the best athletes to come around here in a long time," Coach Don Shula says. "He can run with any receiver who comes his way" ... he was voted Rookie of Year by South Florida media and also won Tommy Fitzgerald Memorial Award as outstanding rookie in 1978 training camp ... fourth-round draftee, 93rd player in 1978.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: He had 12 career interceptions for 239 yards (19.9-yard average) at San Jose State, but separated left shoulder sidelined him for five games as a senior and may have knocked him from first-round consideration in draft ... as sophomore he pilfered seven passes for 104 yards and two TDs, and Spartans were 9-2 in 1975 when he and Dolphin linebacker Kim Bokamper were teammates ... three-time All-Pacific Coast Athletic Association choice, he played in Senior Bowl and East-West Shrine game ... full name Gerald David, born Aug. 10, 1956 in Washington, N.C., he was a quarterback at Desert High, Edwards Air Force Base, Ca. ... bachelor moved to Atlanta in 1980 offseason.

7th Year
Born Nov. 27, 1950

Virginia Tech
(D5, 1973)

With his long-range artillery fire and skillful manipulation of the Dolphin offense, he has solid credentials for No. 1 quarterback job in 1980s ... he has built up confidence and experience to match his powerful arm, and his productivity in 1978 and 1979 has gained the faith of his teammates ... he played the equivalent of 3½ games in 1979 and produced 109 points — 31.1 points per game — and he propelled Dolphins to a 5-2 start in 1978 by drilling 10 touchdown passes and completing 65 of 125 passes in those first 6½ games ... he possesses a 9-5 record as "pitcher of record" and has had 15 starts for Dolphins ... "The last two years we've made the playoffs. We need to go the extra mile," he says. "I believe I can take us there" ... he earned two starts in 1979 in favor of a healthy Bob Griese, but he was dazed on intentional grounding call in second quarter at Baltimore and he was replaced at halftime against New England after completing 3 of 12 passes and having two intercepted ... he ignited offense in early triumphs with 20-point fourth quarter at Minnesota and 28-point second half against Chicago, and his 51-yard hookup with Durliel Harris and two TD passes in fourth quarter almost earned victory at Cleveland until defense collapsed ... "I think throwing long helps keep the defenses loose, and that's right down my alley," he says ... he completed Dolphin-record 26 passes in 41 attempts and netted 322 yards in regular-season finale against New York Jets only to lose on last-minute fumble, 27-24 ... he directed 13-play, 76-yard touchdown drive after relieving Griese in playoff loss at Pittsburgh ... he added duty as holder for place kicks in 1978 and he flipped a seven-yard TD pass to Vern Den Herder on fake field-goal attempt Oct. 29, 1978 against Baltimore ... his first NFL start was Dec. 7, 1975 when injuries had sidelined Griese and Earl Morrall, and Strock pegged 11 straight completions in 12-of-15 firing including two TDs in 31-21 conquest of Buffalo ... fifth-round draftee, 111th player in 1973, he was fifth QB drafted, following Bert Jones, Gary Huff, Gary Keithley and Ron Jaworski ... he spent 1973 season on taxi squad and was No. 3 quarterback (1974-76) until Morrall's retirement.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: He led the nation in passing in 1972 at Virginia Tech, completing 228 of 427 passes (51 percent) for 3,243 yards and 16 TDs ... he passed for an amazing 527 yards against Houston, hitting 34 of 53 passes, and he was voted outstanding offensive player in Blue-Gray game ... B.S. in distributive education ... full name Donald Joseph, born Nov. 27, 1950 in Pottstown, Pa., where he starred at Owen J. Roberts High ... he and wife Debby (married 2-17-79) live in Miami Springs.

A stinging tackler despite his tackhammer size, he has broken up 37 passes and intercepted seven in three seasons at left cornerback ... an intense competitor and fearless in run support ... he has 44 consecutive starts since fifth game of rookie year when he earned NFL All-Rookie honors and precipitated shift of Tim Foley to strong safety ... he owns Dolphin record for tackles by a cornerback with 95 and 93 stops in his first two seasons ... his two interceptions in 1979 both came in fourth quarter to help secure victories over Minnesota and Baltimore ... he and Washington cornerback Joe Lavender are only NFL defenders to wear glasses, and he once suffered a seven-stitch gash over right eye when his "shatterproof" lens was split by a ballcarrier's elbow in 1978 preseason ... he wore contacts in college, but eye irritation forced him to rely on glasses as Dolphin rookie ... his most memorable hit was his first — an end-zone collision with Buffalo's Bob Chandler which denied TD and left both men dazed in 1977 season-opening shutout ... he blocked a punt by San Diego's Jeff West to set up TD in 1978 victory at San Diego, and his fumble recovery in fourth quarter aided 1978 triumph over Dallas ... his 53-yard interception touchdown Sept. 10, 1978 in shutout of Baltimore was first Dolphin TD on pass theft in five years ... 4.6 seconds in 40-yard dash ... ninth-round draftee, 257th player in 1976, he was "mentally unprepared" for rigors of training camp and he quit during first week and returned his signing bonus ... he completed B.S. degree in therapeutic recreation while working in mental hospital, then he was contacted by San Francisco in spring 1977 ... he wrote to NFL and discovered Dolphins retained him.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: He was All-South Independent as three-year starter at Southern Mississippi where Oakland punter Ray Guy was teammate in secondary ... he had six career interceptions and played in Senior Bowl ... full name Norris Lee, born May 3, 1954 in Inverness, Miss., he followed uncle Jim Marsalls from Pascagoula High to NFL ... Marsalls was Kansas City Chiefs cornerback (1969-75) ... his brothers Lynn and Pappy are defensive backs at University of Pittsburgh ... he and wife Yolonda live in Pascagoula with their son Roderick (8-19-75).

He possesses immense determination to recover from fractured thigh bone and restore himself as the imposing tight end he had become in 50 consecutive starts for Dolphins ... an intelligent, powerful blocker and adept receiver, he was four-year regular (1975-78) before suffering fractured femur in third preseason game ... a cyst had weakened the bone, and it snapped when Minnesota cornerback Johnny Turner made tackle ... "I'm optimistic about playing pro football again," Tillman said after rod was removed from right leg in April 1980 ... he had been in traction for three weeks and lost 30 pounds during hospital stay ... "Andre had his best season in 1978 and he might have gone on to even bigger and better things," Coach Don Shula said ... he asserted himself as a receiving threat, getting more experience in third-down passing situations, with 31 catches for 398 yards and three touchdowns ... he snagged 13-yard TD pass for Dolphins' only score in playoff loss to Houston ... he tied Dolphin record for tight ends by catching 8 passes for 89 yards and a TD at New England in 1978 ... he has unusually large hands and great reach for difficult catches ... his biggest TD was 15-yard effort on which he bulldozed two defenders in 1977 victory over Baltimore, and he streaked 37 yards for quarterback Bob Griese's record sixth TD pass in 1977 rout at St. Louis ... his steady improvement came with fuller range of motion in right leg, which required knee surgery in March 1974 ... second-round draftee, 38th player in 1974.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: He gained All-America honors in 1973 as Texas Tech's leading receiver with 26 receptions for 428 yards and five TDs ... Red Raiders defeated Tennessee in Gator Bowl for 10-1 record ... he was named to All-Southwest Conference team of the 1970s ... he injured right knee while lifting weights in July 1973 but postponed surgery until Dolphin physician recommended it after he reported to Dolphin rookie camp ... full name Andre (no middle name), born Nov. 1, 1952 in Dallas, he starred at Hamilton Park High ... bachelor lives in Richardson, Tex.

BOB TORREY

Fullback

38

6-3, 235

Penn State

2nd Year

(FA, 1979)

Born Jan. 30, 1957

A big, rugged fullback, he showed power-running potential as Dolphin rookie in reserve role the second half of 1979 ... he punched 61 yards on 13 carries (4.7 average) and scored a touchdown on one-yard plunge in regular-season finale against New York Jets ... Dolphins signed free agent Oct. 31 to fill roster vacancy of injured fullback Norm Bulach ... he played in seven games, primarily on special teams ... In three backfield appearances, he went 4-17 against Baltimore, 4-22 at Detroit with a 17-yard burst, and 4-22 against New York plus two pass receptions for three yards ... New York Giants had cut him twice in two months ... sixth-round draftee, 145th player in 1979 ... he was waived Aug. 28, one day after final cutdown to 45-player limit, and then re-signed Sept. 14 after Giants dismissed Todd Christensen ... he played in six games, taking the No. 39 jersey Larry Csonka had worn for three years with Giants (1976-78) ... Giants cut Torrey again Oct. 23.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: He accumulated 1,095 yards on 222 carries in three years at Penn State for an impressive 4.9-yard average ... he was starter as sophomore but was backup to Matt Suhey (Chicago, second round, 1980) in junior and senior years ... he rang up totals of 302, 456 and 337 yards ... he and Dolphin receiver Jimmy Cefalo were teammates in 42-30 victory over Arizona State in 1978 Fiesta Bowl when Torrey had a 55-yard ramble on his way to 107 yards nine carries ... starter in Senior Bowl ... full name Robert Douglas, born Jan. 30, 1957 in Olean, N.Y., he lettered in five sports including golf at Bolivar Central High ... bachelor lives in Ceres, N.Y. ... STEVE TOWLE

Linebacker

6-2, 230

Kansas

6th Year

(D6, 1975)

Born Oct. 23, 1953

He packs a wallop into Miami's swarming run defense which had the next-to-lowest yield in the NFL in 1979 ... a dynamic leader at inside linebacker, he is as much an attacker as a defender with his boldness in short-yardage defense ... he carries Dolphin career record with 765 tackles, and despite his reckless abandon, he has missed only five starts to injuries in the last 62 games ... "The keys to short-yardage (defense) are aggressiveness and a determination not to yield your position," he says. "You've got a yard and there's no room for backing up. I'm at my best when I'm going forward" ... he seldom plays in passing situations although his interception with 1:46 remaining in 1979 regular-season finale gave Dolphins last opportunity to overtake New York Jets in 27-24 loss ... he had Dolphin-record 217 tackles in 1976 — 15.5 per game — and was voted team's Most Valuable Player by South Florida media ... in the last three seasons, he has been involved in 13 fumbles, forcing seven and recovering six others ... he once jarred loose three fumbles in 1976 shutout of New York Jets ... injuries pestered him in 1977 and 1978 ... he bruised ribs and twisted right knee in 11th game of 1977 but he lined up for AFC East showdown victory over Baltimore only to suffer right shoulder separation after 18-yard fumble return ... he had cartilage removed from left knee in January 1977 ... he missed three games and wore cast on sprained right knee in September 1978, but he has started 29 consecutive games since that injury ... Dolphins used primarily 4-3 alignment in 1975 and 1976 with Towle in middle for last four games as rookie and all 14 games in 1976 ... sixth-round draftee, 143rd player in 1975.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: He was All-Big Eight linebacker at Kansas with school-record 155 tackles in 1974 and was voted team's outstanding player ... he had 25 tackles against Colorado on day the full-grown buffalo mascot "Ralphie" chased him the length of the field in pregame mishap ... full name Steven Richards, born Oct. 23, 1953 in Kansas City, Kan., he starred at Shawnee Mission West High in Overland Park, Kan., and lived in Prairie Village ... he and wife Janette (married 6-30-79) live in Fort Lauderdale ... he serves as Read-a-Thon chairman for Southeast Florida chapter of Multiple Sclerosis Society, and he is a sports representative for U.S. Tobacco.

UWE von SCHAMANN

Placekicker

6-0, 188
2nd Year
Born April 23, 1956

Oklahoma
(D7, 1979)

With quiet perseverance, he overcame a turbulent start in rookie season with a string of 10 consecutive field goals that bode a promising future as Dolphin placekicker ... soccer-style, right-footed kicker scored 99 points with a 21-for-29 ledger on field goals — 72.4 percent accuracy which bettered six of predecessor Garo Yepremian's nine years ... he converted 17 of his last 21 attempts including boomers of 53 yards at New England and 51 yards against Houston, and he hit 14 of his last 16 (87.5 percent) from the 40-yard-line or closer ... his wind-aided 53-yarder was one yard shy of Dolphin record ... he averaged 33 yards on his successful field goals, and in two games with AFC East rival New England, he was 5-for-5 averaging 38.8 yards ... his first NFL attempt was blocked by Buffalo's Sherman White and returned 76 yards for touchdown by Charles Rome ... he also missed a 37-yarder that day after connecting from 34 yards, but he also muffed his first NFL conversion try and Dolphins escaped with 9-7 victory ... his rocky debut came six days after the popular Yepremian was waived ... "Things couldn't have gotten worse," von Schamann said. "In a way, I'm glad because I learned a lot by just ignoring it, keeping my confidence up and looking for better things in the future" ... he finished with 36 PATs in 40 attempts but only one miss in last 10 games ... seventh-round draftee, 189th player in 1979 and fourth placekicker behind Russell Erxleben (Saints), Tony Franklin (Eagles) and Matt Bahr (Steelers).

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: He twice earned All-Big Eight honors at Oklahoma and established an NCAA record of 125 consecutive conversion kicks ... he missed only one PAT attempt in 141 spanning three seasons, and he shattered old mark of 87 in row by Don Bitterlich of Temple ... longest field goal was 58 yards at Oklahoma State in 1977 ... he hit 30 of 48 career FG attempts (62.5 percent) and had Sooners record of 230 placekicking points ... most memorable field goal was 41-yard shot with six seconds remaining for 29-28 triumph over Ohio State in 1977 ... nicknamed "Von Foot" ... full name Uwe Detlef Walter, born April 23, 1956 in West Berlin, Germany, he moved with mother to Fort Worth, Tex., in 1972 ... he played soccer at Eastern Hills High in Fort Worth and was drafted as goalkeeper by Dallas Tornado in 1977 ... bachelor lives in Norman, Okla. ... name pronounced OO-vah von SHAH-mun.

DELVIN WILLIAMS

Running Back

24

6-0, 200

Kansas

7th Year

(Trade, 1977)

Born April 17, 1951

Whether gliding outside or slashing inside, he has traveled more than 4,000 yards over the past four seasons and has joined the elite of NFL running backs ... his great acceleration and intelligent use of blockers makes him a constant breakaway threat ... he has received Pro Bowl recognition twice and he attained All-NFL honors from Associated Press in 1978 when he darted 1,258 yards on 272 carries for Dolphin records in his first season in Miami ... his production slipped to 703 yards in 1979 but a sprained ankle, two cracked ribs and a pinched nerve in neck combined to limit him to almost 100 fewer carries ... "I would've liked to have had 1,000 yards and all that, but Zonk was here and things were more balanced," he says ... fullback Larry Csonka handled much of the short-yardage blasts and notched 63 first downs (60 rushing, 3 receiving) while Williams had 43 first downs (36 rushing, 7 receiving) ... Williams demonstrated his toughness in 1978 by picking up 29 first downs in 41 attempts when Dolphins needed three yards or less, and he gained 73 first downs altogether (62 rushing, 11 receiving) ... he ranked fourth in NFL rushing in 1978 when he collected five 100-yard games with sprees of 135 and 144 yards against Buffalo ... "It doesn't take long for a message to get from Delvin's mind to his feet," Coach Don Shula says. "His feet are never on the ground very long" ... his best output in 1979 was 99 yards on 13 carries including 39-yard spurt at New England, and he reached 505 yards at midseason before rib injury sidelined him for two games ... he is the only running back in NFL history to set single-season rushing marks for two different teams ... he scooted 1,203 yards on 248 carries for San Francisco 49ers record in 1976, ranking third in NFL, and his 4.9 yards per carry led National Conference ... he is only running back in 11-year history of Pro Bowl to be selected in both conferences ... he and fellow Kansas alumnus John Riggins are only runners in NFL history to gain 1,000 yards for two different teams (Riggins had 1,005 for New York Jets in 1975 and 1,014 and 1,153 for Washington in 1978 and 1979) ... he was traded by 49ers on his 27th birthday, April 17, 1978, for Dolphins' first and fifth draft choices plus wide receiver Freddie Solomon and safety Vern Roberson ... he escaped on a scintillating 58-yard TD on halfback reverse in his first Dolphin game, and by the 12th game, he had broken Csonka's record of 1,117 yards in 1972 ... he was voted team's Most Valuable Player by South Florida media ... he has 15 career 100-yard games, topped by 194 yards on 34 carries Oct. 31, 1976 against St. Louis and 180 yards on 23 carries the following Sunday against Washington ... he romped 153 yards and teammate Wilbur Jackson gained 156 yards Nov.

29, 1976 against Minnesota — only the third time in NFL history that two in same backfield topped 150 yards ... 49ers rushing record by Joe (The Jet) Perry had stood since 1954, and Perry was the one who signed Williams to rookie contract ... second-round draftee, 49th player in 1974 ... he was hampered by broken wrist as rookie but escaped on 71-yard TD against Oakland.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: He sparked Kansas offense in 1973 with 762 yards rushing and 253 yards receiving — 1,015 combined yards — as Jayhawks posted 7-4-1 record, school's best mark in the 1970s ... he scored 10 touchdowns as a senior and posted career totals of 1,623 yards on 367 carries ... full name Delvin Jr., born April 17, 1951 in Houston, he set records of 1,806 yards and 26 TDs at Kashmere High in 1970 and rushed for 296 yards in one game ... bachelor lives in Los Altos Hills, Ca.

Tony Nathan on his record 86-yard punt return in 1979:

I started to try to outrun that last man, but I thought if he grabbed me by the jersey and pulled me down, I'd never hear the last of it. At that particular time, you can't think too much. I just started to do what I do best — I don't try to tell anybody I'm the fastest thing around, but I can move laterally. I think I have enough quickness to get around somebody. I was dying to get into the end zone and see what it felt like.

VOLUNTARY COMPENSATION

Three former Dolphins — Larry Csonka, Paul Warfield and Jim Kluck — re-entered the NFL in 1976 after a year in the defunct World Football League. Their new NFL clubs voluntarily compensated the Dolphins in this manner:

New York Giants — 3rd in 1978, 3rd in 1979 for Csonka.
Cleveland Browns — 4th and 7th in 1978 for Warfield.
Denver Broncos — 12th in 1978, 8th in 1979 for Kluck.

Miami 9, Buffalo 7

Orchard Park, N.Y., Sept. 2 — Fullback Larry Csonka, marking his return to the Dolphins after a four-year absence, accounted for 45 yards of a winning 77-yard touchdown drive in the fourth quarter. While sheets of rain flooded Rich Stadium, the Dolphins mounted the 14-play march and Csonka dove one yard for the TD with 6:29 to play. Bills' placekicker Tom Dempsey misfired to the left on a 34-yard field-goal attempt as time ran out. Csonka powered 87 yards on 16 carries and moved into sixth place on the NFL's all-time rushing list. Miami's 19th consecutive victory over Buffalo was accomplished with stingy defense, permitting only five first downs and 121 total yards — third-lowest total in Dolphin history. Dolphin rookie Uwe von Schamann saw his first NFL field-goal try blocked by Sherman White and returned 76 yards for a TD by Charles Rome. Von Schamann later connected from 34 yards and missed from 37 yards.

Miami 19, Seattle 10

Miami, Sept. 9 — Interceptions by linebackers Earnest Rhone and Bob Matheson led to nine points, and cornerback Gerald Small intercepted at the Dolphin 9-yard-line to turn the tide in the third quarter. The Dolphins drove 76 yards following Small's theft and settled for a 31-yard field goal by Uwe von Schamann for a 12-10 lead. Quarterback Bob Griese fired a 51-yard pass to Duriel Harris, then a 7-yard TD pass to Norm Bulach, who broke a tackle and lunged across the goal line with 9:18 left. Griese pegged a three-yard TD pass to Nat Moore in the first quarter. Seattle southpaw Jim Zorn passed 23 yards to Steve Raible for a go-ahead touchdown in the third period. Harris had five receptions for 117 yards. "One good thing about our defense," fullback Larry Csonka said, "is that we don't have to play them."

Miami 27, Minnesota 12

Bloomington, Minn., Sept. 16 — Backup quarterback Don Strock sparked a 20-point fourth quarter by flipping touchdown passes to Larry Csonka and Jimmy Cefalo, and Miami's defense intercepted three passes and allowed the Vikings inside the Dolphin 20-yard-line only once. The Vikings tediously built a 12-7 lead on field goals of 39, 44, 40 and 24 yards by Rick Danmeyer. Bob Griese had completed 10 of 15 passes, but three turnovers left the Dolphins trailing in the third quarter when Griese exited with a pulled hamstring. Csonka was unattended for a TD pass that capped a 64-yard drive, and Strock's 50-yard heave to Duriel Harris set up the score by Cefalo, who made a diving catch in the end zone. "I wanted to improve our play in the fourth quarter this season," Coach Don Shula said, "but not at the expense of the first three."

Miami 31, Chicago 16

Miami, Sept. 23 — A 28-point barrage in the second half with touchdowns on all four possessions boosted the Dolphins to their first 4-0 start since 1972 and their seventh straight victory in regular-season games. Miami's swarming defense applied clamps to Chicago running back Walter Payton, who managed only 43 yards on 15 carries after piling up 125, 182 and 134 yards in three previous games. Quarterback Don Strock, who injured his right knee on a sack in the second period, completed eight consecutive passes in the second half and fullback Larry Csonka hammered out TDs of 12 and 9 yards and one yard. Flanker Nat Moore caught five passes for 121 yards including a 53-yarder in the second period. Tight end Bruce Hardy took snaps from center on the game's final two plays.

New York Jets 33, Miami 27

New York, Sept. 30 — Cornerback Bobby Jackson raced 58 yards with an interception for a late third-quarter touchdown, enabling the Jets to knock the Dolphins from the unbeaten ranks in the fifth week of the season. The Dolphins struggled to within six points, 26-20, after Bob Griese tossed an 18-yard TD pass to tight end Bruce Hardy and Uwe von Schamann kicked a 37-yard field goal with 2:33 remaining. But the Jets, on a play-action fake by Richard Todd, stung the visitors with a 71-yard scoring bomb from Todd to Wesley Walker. A blocked punt by rookie Donald Dykes was recovered in the end zone by rookie Johnny Lynn for the Jets' first TD. Griese passed for 296 yards and three TDs, and Nat Moore snagged eight passes for 127 yards.

Oakland 13, Miami 3

Oakland, Oct. 8 — Two touchdowns in the first 4½ minutes of the third quarter propelled the Raiders to their seventh straight triumph over the Dolphins in California dating to 1966. A Monday night TV audience was subjected to a scoreless first half. When the Dolphins fumbled away the second-half kickoff at their 28-yard-line, quarterback Ken Stabler lofted a 14-yard TD pass to tight end Raymond Chester at 12:51. Then at 10:34, linebacker Ted Hendricks sailed into the end zone with a 23-yard return of a Bob Griese interception. Miami controlled the football for 34 of the next 40 plays but managed only a 23-yard field goal by Uwe von Schamann after a procedure penalty nullified a TD plunge by Delvin Williams. Williams and Larry Csonka had a season-high combined 169 yards rushing. A fourth-down quarterback sack by Reggie Kinlaw and an interception by Lester Hayes ruined Dolphin threats in the fourth period.

Miami 17, Buffalo 7

Miami, Oct. 14 — Rookie Tony Nathan ignited the Dolphins with a record 86-yard punt return for a touchdown in the first quarter on the way to an NFL record 20th consecutive victory over the Bills. "I was dying to get into the end zone and see what it felt like," Nathan said after his record jaunt. The Dolphins built a 17-0 halftime bulge and controlled the game with a 178-yard rushing attack. Fullback Larry Csonka powered 90 yards on 24 carries including a seven-yard TD blast. He ground away the final 4½ minutes of the game with eight straight carries. The Bills drove 80 yards (58 yards on four Joe Ferguson passes) to a third-quarter TD on a three-yard sweep by Roland Hooks. Miami's defense held Buffalo under 300 yards total offense for the two games combined in 1979.

New England 28, Miami 13

Foxboro, Mass., Oct. 21 — Quarterback Steve Grogan fired a 15-yard touchdown pass to Ray Jarvis with 9:07 to play, breaking open a see-saw contest for first place in the AFC East. The Dolphins managed only 69 yards passing and never got closer than the New England 38-yard-line in the second half. Quarterback Bob Griese moved the Dolphins to a 13-0 lead on the strength of a 13-yard TD pass to tight end Bruce Hardy and field goals of 53 and 40 yards by rookie Uwe von Schamann. Delvin Williams rushed for 99 yards. But the Patriots mounted TD drives of 69, 59 and 64 yards and delivered the clincher when linebacker Mike Hawkins intercepted Don Strock and raced 35 yards for a touchdown with 1:40 to play. It was the Dolphins' third loss in the last four outings, slipping to 5-3.

Miami 27, Green Bay 7

Miami, Oct. 28 — Quarterback Bob Griese and split end Durlie Harris staged an air show in a season-high 475-yard offensive display. Harris erased two Dolphin single-game records with 10 receptions for 180 yards including a 37-yard touchdown, his first of the season. He snared seven passes for 148 yards in the first half alone. Griese completed 18 of 27 passes for 287 yards — only the second time since 1970 that he topped 250 yards in a victory. The Dolphins netted more yards passing (280) than in their previous three games combined (227). Green Bay's only TD occurred when a David Whitehurst pass was tipped by James Lofton to tight end Paul Coffman for 78 yards. Linebacker Larry Gordon produced an end-zone interception to hold a 13-0 halftime lead.

Houston 9, Miami 6

Miami, Nov. 5 — In the only game in Dolphin history in which no touchdowns were scored, Houston's rotund Toni Fritsch kicked field goals of 46, 48 and 39 yards to trip the Dolphins single-footedly on Monday night TV. The Oilers never penetrated Miami's 20-yard-line despite fullback Earl Campbell slamming 120 yards on 32 carries. Rookie Uwe von Schamann converted field goals of 32 and 51 yards, the latter pulling the Dolphins within three points with 12:26 to play. Then at the two-minute warning and the Dolphins at the Houston 20-yard-line, linebacker Gregg Bingham intercepted Bob Griese's pass to Gary Davis and romped 54 yards. Davis collected 109 combined yards (51 rushing and 58 receiving) but lost two fumbles. Houston netted only 11 yards passing, but tripped Miami for a third straight time.

Miami 19, Baltimore 0

Miami, Nov. 11 — Defensive end Vern Den Herder collected four quarterback sacks and recovered a fumble to spark Miami's sixth shutout of Baltimore in the 1970s. The Colts got inside the Dolphins' 20-yard-line only once, and then only with a fumble recovery. Quarterback Bob Griese connected twice with Nat Moore for first-half touchdown passes of 18 and 14 yards, and Uwe von Schamann chipped in field goals of 32 and 22 yards in the second half. A 24-yard sweep by Gary Davis set up the second Griese-to-Moore TD pass which came with 28 seconds remaining in the half. Fourth-quarter interceptions by cornerbacks Norris Thomas and Gerald Small preserved the shutout. The Colts' halfback Joe Washington accounted for 177 of his team's 231 yards including 10 pass receptions for 121 yards.

Cleveland 30, Miami 24

Cleveland, Nov. 18 — Quarterback Brian Sipe lofted a 39-yard touchdown pass to Reggie Rucker on only the fifth play of a 74-yard drive in overtime. Sipe completed 23 of 42 passes for 358 yards and three TDs, but much of the aerial barrage (6 of 8 for 113 yards) occurred after the Dolphins had taken a 24-17 lead with 3:53 remaining in regulation. Sipe found Ozzie Newsome in the end zone for a 34-yard TD pass with 1:21 to play, capping a 72-yard drive in seven plays. The 493-yard yield was the second-highest ever by the Dolphins under Coach Don Shula. Don Strock replaced Bob Griese at quarterback in the fourth quarter and heaved a 51-yard pass to Durlie Harris. Strock guided TD drives of 72 and 61 yards with a four-yard strike to Delvin Williams giving Miami a short-lived edge. It was the largest crowd (80,374) ever to watch a Dolphin regular-season game.

Miami 28, Baltimore 24

Baltimore, Nov. 25 — Unflappable Bob Griese fired a third-down, 12-yard touchdown pass to rookie halfback Tony Nathan with 2:27 remaining to clinch the Dolphins' fifth consecutive victory over the Colts. The score by Nathan provided an 11-point cushion that withstood a 31-yard TD pass from Colts quarterback Greg Landry to Mike Siani with 56 seconds to play. Duriel Harris notched his fourth 100-yard game of 1979 after snaring TD passes of 29 yards from Don Strock and 31 yards from Griese. Strock was dazed in the second quarter and replaced by Griese.

Miami 39, New England 24

Miami, Nov. 29 — Fullback Larry Csonka became the sixth player in NFL history to rush for 8,000 yards when he blasted for 88 yards and three touchdowns, and the Dolphins ousted New England from first place in the AFC East. Quarterback Bob Griese came off the bench in the second half and launched a 26-point rally with a 38-yard TD pass to Nat Moore. A 56-yard interception return by free safety Neal Colzie set up Csonka's third one-yard TD plunge with 1:56 to play. Griese had directed TD drives of 78 and 65 yards in the third quarter. The Patriots, losing in the Orange Bowl for the 12th straight time, overcame an early 10-point deficit with Steve Grogan passing for 219 yards and two TDs in the first half for a 17-13 advantage.

Miami 28, Detroit 10

Pontiac, Mich., Dec. 9 — Regaining the starting job after a demotion that lasted two games, quarterback Bob Griese completed 17 of 22 passes for 229 yards and two touchdowns in a victory that clinched the AFC East title. Miami's 10th victory of the season was secured on the first play of the fourth quarter when Gary Davis cracked three yards for a TD and a 28-3 lead. At that point, the Lions had gained only four first downs and 88 yards, and rookie quarterback Jeff Komlo was intercepted by Tim Foley and Neal Colzie. Griese hit his first six passes for 101 yards and he built a 14-0 advantage in the first quarter on TD strikes of 25 yards to Nat Moore and 29 yards to Jimmy Cefalo. The Dolphins thus completed a four-game sweep of NFC Central opponents in 1979 and improved their record against the NFC to 27-6 during the 1970s.

New York Jets 27, Miami 24

Miami, Dec. 15 — A 322-yard passing performance by Don Strock was undermined when the Dolphin quarterback lost a fumble at the Jets' 10-yard-line in the final minute. The Dolphins already had captured the AFC East crown, but the loss to the Jets was Miami's fourth straight in two years. Strock completed a Dolphin-record 26 passes in 41 attempts and helped construct a 14-0 lead with a 20-yard TD throw to rookie Tony Nathan. The Jets vaulted into a 20-14 lead with two touchdowns in the first four minutes of the third quarter — the first a 72-yard TD pass from Richard Todd to halfback Bruce Harper, and the second after the Dolphins fumbled the ensuing kickoff at the 18. Linebacker Steve Towle intercepted Todd at the Miami 40 with 1:46 remaining to give the Dolphins a last chance to win, but Strock later fumbled on a rollout.

Raiders Sink Dolphins With 82-Yard Bomb

Oakland, Dec. 27 — Quarterback Daryle Lamonica unloaded an 82-yard touchdown pass to Rod Sherman with 9:34 to play as Oakland spoiled the Dolphins' first appearance in the playoffs, 21-14, on a field goal with mud.

The Dolphins, who had won six consecutive games to finish 10-4 and gain a wild-card berth, had taken a 7-0 lead in the second quarter when Bob Griese fired a 16-yard strike to Paul Warfield in the end zone. Lamonica matched that TD with a 22-yard toss to Fred Biletnikoff only 1:50 before halftime.

Raider right cornerback Willie Brown intercepted a wet and wobbly pass by Griese and fled 50 yards along the sideline for the tie-breaking TD. It came minutes after Jake Scott recovered an Oakland fumble at the Miami 10-yard line.

The heave to Sherman was insurance. Only three plays earlier, Dolphin kicker Garo Yepremian missed a 24-yard field-goal attempt for the second time in the game. Oakland's George Blanda also missed a 23-yarder.

1971 AFC PLAYOFF

Dolphins Outlast Chiefs in Longest Game

Kansas City, Dec. 25 — Garo Yepremian ended 82 minutes and 40 seconds of an epic struggle by thumping a 37-yard field goal with 7:40 elapsed in the second overtime, lifting the Dolphins past Kansas City, 27-34, on Christmas Day.

The Dolphins battled from behind three times to tie the AFC West champions, the third time on Bob Griese's five-yard pass to tight end Marv Fleming with 96 seconds remaining in regulation.

Kansas City running back Ed Podolak, who amassed 350 yards of all-purpose running, returned the ensuing kickoff 78 yards to the Dolphin 22 where Curtis Johnson made a desperation tackle. With 35 seconds on the clock, Jan Stenerud missed a 32-yard field-goal try.

Stenerud had a 42-yarder blocked by Nick Buoniconti in the fifth quarter, and Yepremian was short with a 45-yard effort. But Larry Csonka crashed 29 yards to the Chiefs 36, and that put Yepremian, the NFL's scoring leader, in position to win it. Goal posts were on the goal line; in 1974 the uprights were moved to the end line.

1971 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

Anderson, No-Names Stymlie Colts, 21-0

Miami, Jan. 2, 1972 — Three lightning plays and a persistent defense propelled the Dolphins into Super Bowl VI with a 21-0 rout of Baltimore before an all-time Orange Bowl record crowd of 78,939.

Strong safety Dick Anderson intercepted a John Unitas pass which was deflected by Curtis Johnson, and behind a wall of six open-field blocks, Anderson weaved 62 yards for a third-quarter touchdown. "My eyes were popping as I ran," Anderson said. "I've never seen so many people land on their heads."

Before Anderson's convoy made it 14-0, the Dolphins staggered the defending Super Bowl champions when Bob Griese and Paul Warfield hooked up for a 75-yard TD pass. Warfield applied the clincher when he escaped 50 yards with a Griese pass, setting up a five-yard TD slam by fullback Larry Csonka.

The Colts hadn't been held scoreless for 97 games over seven seasons. They were stopped at the Dolphin 9 in the second quarter. Jim O'Brien missed two field-goal attempts and had another blocked by Lloyd Mumphord.

SUPER BOWL VI

Cowboys Flatten Luckless Dolphins, 24-3

New Orleans, Jan. 16, 1972 — A 252-yard rushing attack and sharp passing by Roger Staubach spurred the Dallas Cowboys to a 24-3 victory over the Dolphins at Tulane Stadium.

Duane Thomas pranced 95 yards on 19 carries, fullback Walt Garrison added 74 yards on 14 carries and Staubach passed twice for touchdowns to Lance Alworth and Mike Ditka. Staubach, who was sacked twice in the first quarter, bounced back to complete 12 of 19 passes, and he scrambled from the Dolphin pass rush five times.

The Dolphins were frustrated all day; in the first quarter, Larry Csonka lost a fumble and Bob Griese was chased by tackle Bob Lilly for a 29-yard loss. Griese fumbled away a snap at the Dallas 16 in the fourth period.

Although it was intriguing 10-3 at halftime, the Cowboys marched 71 yards in seven plays after kickoff, and Thomas swept three yards for the TD.

1972 AFC PLAYOFF

Late TD Drive Rescues Unbeaten Dolphins

Miami, Dec. 24 — On the ropes in the fourth quarter after an unprecedented 14 victories, the Dolphins responded to poised Earl Morrall and drove 80 yards for a touchdown with 4:56 to play for a 20-14 victory over the Cleveland Browns.

Morrall, the NFL's leading passer as he replaced injured Bob Griese 10 weeks earlier, had completed only four passes for 38 yards. But he threw 15 and 35 yards to Paul Warfield, reaching the Browns' 20, and a pass interference call against linebacker Billy Andrews put the ball at the 8.

Halfback Jim Kilick then bulled eight yards up the middle on a trap for the winning points. The triumph was sealed with a minute to play when linebacker Doug Swift intercepted quarterback Mike Phipps at the Dolphin 20.

Despite stealing five of Phipps' passes, the Dolphins were stung by a 27-yard TD pass to Fair Hooker and trailed, 14-13, with 8:11 to play.

SUPER BOWL VIII Dolphins Demolish Vikings, 24-7

Houston, Jan. 13, 1974 — Winning for the 32nd time in 34 games, the Dolphins repeated as Super Bowl champions and proved themselves "Best Ever" with a 24-7 rout of the Minnesota Vikings at Rice Stadium.

There was no doubt from the beginning. The Dolphins swept 62 yards in 10 plays with the opening kickoff, scoring on Larry Csonka's five-yard smash. Minnesota punted, and the onslaught resumed with a 56-yard, 10-play Dolphin drive capped by Jim Kwik's one-yard plunge.

It was 17-0 before the Vikings crossed their 40, and a fourth-down fumble by Oscar Reed was recovered by safety Jake Scott at the Dolphin six-yard line.

A brilliant, diving catch by Paul Warfield netted 27 yards on a third-quarter TD drive that hiked it to 24-0. Csonka finished with his best-ever total of 145 yards on 33 carries. The Dolphins rushed for 703 yards and outscored opponents, 85-33, in the three-game playoff blitz. Csonka gained a Super Bowl record 145 yards and was named MVP.

1974 AFC PLAYOFF Dream of 'Triple Crown' Shattered

Oakland, Dec. 21 — Oakland quarterback Ken Stabler, falling in the clutches of Vern Den Herder, unloaded a wobbly eight-yard pass that Clarence Davis wrested from three defenders in the end zone, and the Raiders scored a stunning 28-26 victory over the defending champion Dolphins.

Stabler, who had spent the last of his timeouts, appeared to have thrown an interception. But running back Davis clutched the football when bodies were untangled with 26 seconds remaining.

It was the fourth TD pass for lefthander Stabler and his second "freak" score. Four minutes earlier, Cliff Branch fell while catching a pass at the Dolphin 27, but defender Henry Stuckey also slipped, and Branch got up and escaped for a 72-yard TD.

The Dolphins, trailing by two points, went ahead with 2:08 remaining as rookie Benny Malone broke two tackles on a 23-yard touchdown run along the sideline.

1978 AFC "WILD-CARD" PLAYOFF Oilers Jolt Erring Dolphins, 17-9

Miami, Dec. 24 — The Houston Oilers amassed a 455-209 margin in total yardage and, aided by five Dolphin turnovers, gained a 17-9 victory in a battle of AFC "wild-card" entries at the Orange Bowl.

Toni Fritsch kicked a 35-yard field goal with 7:25 remaining to snap a 7-7 tie that existed since the first quarter. An interception by linebacker Greg Bingham led to a clinching 50-yard touchdown drive capped by Earl Campbell's one-yard dive with 1:55 to go. Campbell, the NFL rushing leader with 1,450 yards as a rookie, had been checked for only 16 yards on 13 carries in the first half.

Dolphin quarterback Bob Griese, playing with very sore ribs, connected with tight end Andre Tillman for a 13-yard TD after Earnest Rhone had recovered a fumbled punt at the Houston 21. But Griese completed only 13 of 28 passes. Twice the Dolphins lost the ball inside the Oiler 10-yard line when the game was tied.

Houston's Dan Pastorini wore a flak jacket to protect three broken ribs, and he passed for 261 of his 306-yard total in the first half.

1979 AFC PLAYOFF

Steelers Blitz Dolphins in First Quarter

Pittsburgh, Dec. 30 — Launching a drive to their fourth Super Bowl title in six years, the Pittsburgh Steelers scored touchdowns on their first three possessions and coasted to a 34-14 victory at Three Rivers Stadium.

Miami managed only 25 yards rushing against the Steel Curtain and was stopped twice in the second quarter after achieving a first down inside the Steeler 10-yard line. The Dolphins got as close as 20-7 with a seven-yard TD pass from Bob Griese to Durie Harris in the third period, but Pittsburgh responded with a 69-yard TD drive.

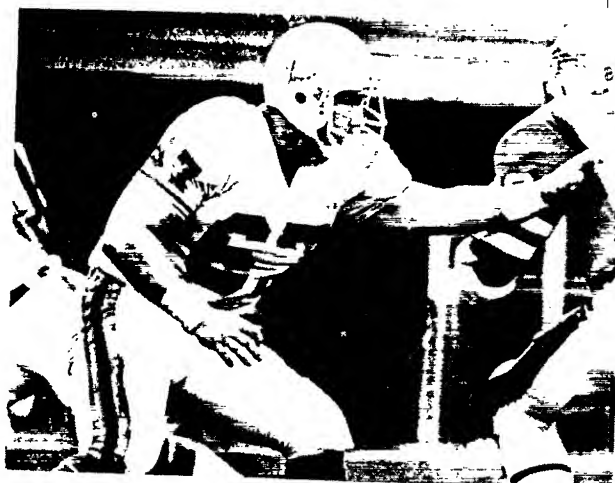

The Steelers marched 62, 62 and 56 yards for their first-quarter scores when quarterback Terry Bradshaw completed 8 of 10 passes including touchdowns to John Stallworth and Lynn Swann, who was standing alone in the end zone.

Don Strock directed a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive after relieving Griese in the fourth quarter.

MIAMI DOLPHINS: WINNING CONSISTENCY SINCE '70 MERGER

Since the 1970 merger of the National and American Football Leagues, the Miami Dolphins are one of only four teams to win more than 70 percent of their games. The Dolphins possess the AFC's best regular-season (.726) and over-all (.717) winning percentages since the merger.

Miami won 31 consecutive games at the Orange Bowl — an NFL home-field record — from Oct. 17, 1971 to Dec. 15, 1974 including four playoff games but excluding preseason games. The Dolphins are 64-13 at home, 46-29-1 on the road and 2-1 at neutral sites (Super Bowls) under Shula. In regular-season games only, the Dolphins are 60-12 at home and 44-27-1 on the road since 1970.

PRESS INFORMATION

Certified newspaper, radio and television representatives should address all requests for working press credentials to:

Bob Kearney, Public Relations Director

Miami Dolphins, 330 Biscayne Boulevard, Miami 33132

The Press Gate is located between Gates 9 and 10 on the east side of the Orange Bowl, and access to press parking is NW Third Street at 15th Avenue. Credentials are left with an attendant at the Press Gate two hours before kickoff. Requests for press parking should be made to the Stadium Manager's office at 305-579-6971.

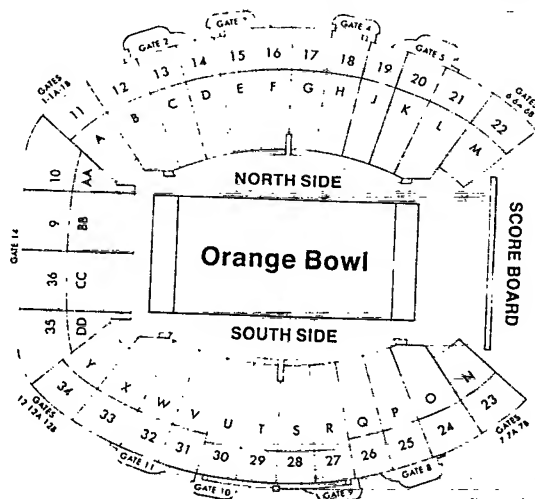

On Level 5 of the pressbox are located the radio booth for the visiting team and the position for coaches' films.

ORANGE BOWL STADIUM

The Orange Bowl has a seating capacity of 75,289 but can be expanded to more than 80,000 seats for the Super Bowl with the addition of bleachers in the east end zone. Five of the first 13 Super Bowls were played in Miami.

Prescription Athletic Turf was installed in March 1976 to replace the Poly-Turf of the previous six seasons.

The stadium was a Works Progress Administration project built in 1937 for $325,000 with a seating capacity of 25,000. Some 12,000 bleacher seats were added in 1945, and in 1948, double-decking of the north and south stands boosted capacity to 60,000. Some 7,500 seats were added in 1949 with the sale of $50 non-interest bonds, and capacity reached 68,000 in 1953. The west end zone was decked in 1968 to attain 75,000 seats, and from 1971 through 1976, bleachers in the east end zone (removed in 1977) gave a capacity of 80,045.
